New Cumberland To Push War Against Air Pollution

By BOB DUFFY

NEW CUMBERLAND — One person who is looking the problem of air pollution squarely in the eye is Mrs. Alice Mitchell, chairman of the Mayor's Committee on Air Pollution.

"If you think it is bad today, you should see it in the summer. My children can't even play outdoors," Mrs. Mitchell declared Tuesday as she turned toward the Ohio Edison plant at Toronto directly across the Ohio River from her house at 1106 Ridge Ave. and watched smoke bellow from the stacks sending black and gray clouds over the river into this county seat.

Mrs. Mitchell turned and rubbed both hands across what were only a few months ago white shingles on her front porch and held up two badly soiled hands to show how the heavy dust gathers.

ADDED EMPHASIS was given the campaign when the first of a series of lectures by air pollution authorities given here Monday.

Benjamin Linsky, professor of sanitary engineering at West Virginia University, was the speaker.

The seven - member Mayor's Committee was created in June. Meetings were held and in August a group of sign - bearing housewives from New Cumber-

Navy Okays Review Of McGee Case

Disciplinary Steps Taken In Disclosure Of Huge Oil Thefts

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy has agreed to a Civil Service Commission review of disciplinary action taken against a civilian employe who triggered public disclosure of massive thefts of U.S. military fuel supplies in Thailand.

Sen. William Proxmire, who earlier asked for such a review, announced the Navy's action today. He had complained that the service had retaliated against John McGee, the civilian inspector who first tipped him to the thefts of the oil supplies.

Proxmire also said he will insist the civilian heads of the Navy and Air Force give close personal consideration to the cases of McGee and A. E. Fitzgerald, an Air Force management expert who testified that production of an Air Force transport will cost $2 billion more than official estimates.

Both men, Proxmire said, "appear to have been penalized for doing their jobs too well."

McGee said he was abruptly transferred from his assignment in Bangkok, assigned to a make-work job in Virginia and denied a customary in-grade pay increase after he said he complained that official laxity was allowing widespread fuel thefts to go unchecked.

A General Accounting Office report said at least 5.5 million gallons of fuels and lubricants were stolen in 1967 alone. Investigators blamed bribery, forgery and government laxity for the thefts. They said they had no way of estimating the total volume and value of the stolen petroleum.

Fitzgerald, a deputy for Air Force management systems, said that 12 days after he testified before Proxmire's government economy subcommittee he was told he had incorrectly been given career tenure due to "computer error."

"The coincidence of a misprogrammed computer just happening to make a one-in-ten-thousand mistake against one of the rare Pentagon officials with the guts to tell a congressional committee that the Pentagon is spending too much, is about as likely as the joint chiefs of staff pleading for a big cut in the military budget," Proxmire said.

"I will find it difficult, as I am sure the general public will, to reach any conclusion other than Mr. Fitzgerald's plight resulted from his testimony before my subcommittee," Proxmire said.

Paris Seen As Ousted In Peace Role

Military Equipment Delivery Stopped; Effect Minimized

JERUSALEM (AP) — The Israeli Foreign Ministry says France's arms embargo against Israel is a "one-sided and arbitrary breach" of French-Israeli agreements and eliminates France as a potential peacemaker in the Middle East. One expert minimized its effect on Israel's military machine.

France announced Tuesday that it had cut off delivery of all military equipment to Israel, incluling spare parts for the Israeli air force's French Mystere and Mirage jet fighters.

Diplomats in Paris viewed the embargo as an effort by President Charles de Gaulle to pressure Israel into accepting a Soviet peace plan for the Middle East. But Israel has already rejected the Soviet proposal, and there was no indication that it might reconsider.

Informed Israeli sources said spare parts on hand will keep Israel's fighters in the air for many months. An official spokesman said the embargo was "possibly dangerous," but a popular military commentator, Gen. Haim Herzog, said the air force could buy spare parts for its French planes from other countries.

The Johnson administration agreed last month to sell 50 U.S. F4 Phantom jets and spare parts to Israel, with delivery of the planes to begin sometime this year.

The Soviet peace plan which De Gaulle is pushing calls for stationing a new U.N. peacekeeping force along the Arab-Israeli borders, U.N. diplomatic sources revealed Tuesday night.

Scattered incidents were reported Tuesday along the Jordan River, and an Israeli spokesman said Jordanian troops blew up the Damiya Bridge, one of the two across the river used by Arabs on the Israeli-occupied west bank for visits to Jordan.

In Lebanon, jeeploads of troops in steel helmets and battle fatigues patrolled the streets of Beirut amid what one newspaper called the country's worst political crisis in 10 years. Premier Abdullah Yafi resigned Tuesday in the wake of the devastating Israeli commando raid on the Beirut International Airport, and Yafi has so far refused to form a new Cabinet.

Defense Submits Motions

Judge's Step Due In Sirhan Trial

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Defense motions to set aside Sirhan Bishara Sirhan's indictment and his plea of innocent come before Judge Herbert V. Walker today as his trial resumes on charges of murdering Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

The case of the People vs. Sirhan opened formally Tuesday. Within minutes, one of Sirhan's attorneys asked for a closed session in Walker's chambers to discuss motions. After an hour in chambers, four motions were introduced in open court and Walker—after ruling against two—directed the defense to submit written requests today on the others.

Sirhan 24, a Jordanian who came to this country as a boy, was neatly dressed in a gray suit; white, buttoned-down shirt and blue tie. He waved to his attorneys as he entered the heavily guarded, 75-seat courtroom. He sat next to them at the left end of the long counsel table but made no public statements.

The motion to withdraw the plea of innocent is a legal technicality. Under California law, an indictment can not be quashed while a plea stands. After a plea is withdrawn, and if another indictment is returned, the original plea may be re-entered.

The motion attacking Sirhan's indictment is based on a contention the grand jury which indicted him was not composed of a proper cross-section of the community, said Russell Parsons, one of three defense lawyers. Parsons said such juries frequently exclude women, members of minority groups and people of various professions.

LBJ Gets 'Final' Disappointment

Fulbright Says No Quick Action On Nuclear Treaty

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lyndon B. Johnson's one-time base of power—the Senate—has provided him a last and bitter disappointment in the final moments of his public career.

Chairman J. W. Fulbright of the Foreign Relations Committee made official Tuesday what had long been suspected: Despite presidential urgings there will be no immediate action on the nuclear nonproliferation treaty.

Thus the pact, a New Frontier legacy that became for Johnson something of a personal crusade, probably will bear the signature of a Republican president.

There was no immediate comment from the White House. Nor in the waning days of the delicate transition period to a new administration was one expected.

But for Johnson, a wartime leader who had sought to leave this lasting imprint on efforts to ensure peace, there was ample cause for disappointment.

For one thing, there was his personal devotion to getting it through.

This last satisfaction, ironically, was denied him by a Democratic controlled Senate where less than a decade after gaining legendary power as majority leader he faced as President some of the bitterest opposition to his Vietnam War policies.

It also was a Senate that turned in four short years from helping him pass a flood of Great Society social legislation to spawning serious challengers from his own party for a job he finally gave up voluntarily.

More Snow Due Here And In Tri-State Area

An accumulation of 1 to 3 more inches of snow is expected for East Liverpool and the area by late this evening.

The forecast calls for light snow to begin falling this afternoon.

Colder weather is due Thursday.

Temperatures through Monday will average below normal, with highs of 30-35 and lows of 18-24.

Tribes Plan 'Snow Dance'

CARSON CITY Nev. (AP) — It hasn't snowed in normally snowy northern Nevada for two weeks and this city's first-ever winter carnival is just around the corner. So about 40 high school students - members of the Hopi, Shoshone, Pima and Apache Indian tribes — plan to perform a "snow dance" Friday. The dance is similar to those used to ask the gods for rain.

Ousted Students Take Plea To High Court

WASHINGTON (AP) — A group of students ousted from Bluefield, W. Va. State College has appealed to the U. S. Supreme Court to limit the expulsion power of college officials.

The appeal, filed Tuesday by counsel for 10 ousted students asks the justices to require college administrators to give fair and impartial hearings to students facing expulsion.

The appeal says the "interests of nearly four million college students and over 800 public institutions of higher education" are affected.

Burned Child Transferred To Cincinnati

EAST PALESTINE—An 18-month-old Negley area girl, badly burned on the face and arms in a fire which struck the family home early Sunday morning, has been taken to the Shriner Burns Institute at Cincinnati.

Pamela Sue Noel ad her mother, Mrs. Marilyn Noel, 32, were flown to the Cincinnati hospital Tuesday.

The Noel home along Latta Rd. near the Peace Valley Rd. was damaged early Sunday when flames broke out in a second - floor bedroom, apparently caused by an over-heated electrical heater.

James Noel, 29, the father, was burned when he broke down the bedroom door to rescue Pamela Sue and Kelly Jo Sheerer, 5.

The older girl who also was burned, is improved slightly at Salem City Hospital and has been removed from isolation. Her condition remains "serious."

The father is in "fair condition at the Salem hospital.

Part Of $155-Million Program

Power Company To Spend $578,000 In Area In '69

The Ohio Power Co. plans to spend some $578,000 in the East Liverpool area during 1969 to strengthen service in the downtown section and provide capacity for four new all-electric schools.

A new 69,000 - volt substation and extensions of 69,000 - volt transmission lines, plus distribution conversions from 4,000 to 12,000 volts, are included.

W. S. Welday, manager of Ohio Power operations in the Steubenville Division, announced the area program as part of an over-all record - shattering $155 million to be spent to improve power production and delivery facilities.

Rep. Taft Sworn In As Congress Member

Huston Offers Fiscal Views To Kiwanians

"Inflation will continue, but the percentage will drop," Fred Huston, president of the Central Federal Savings and Loan Association of Wellsville, predicted when he addressed the Wellsville Kiwanis Club Tuesday noon at Meade's Restaurant.

Huston said he expects some of the policies of the Nixon administration to cause a tightening of money, but he can't see a termination of inflation any time in the foreseeable future.

He pointed out, however, that a man he knows in industry told him that if his salary does not double in the next 10 years he will be a candidate for relief.

"In the savings and loan business," Huston said, "interest being paid is the highest in 25 years, but companies are charging correspondingly large rates for money loaned. This does not seem to be effecting the number of loans people are making, and with the housing shortage, both locally and nationwide, there will not be a reduction in the demand for loans," he continued.

Huston told the group he believes the national growth will be slower in 1969, but still will be substantial. He also predicted no recession of any significant nature.

A temporary appropriation of $20,600 was approved for first-quarter operations.

LISBON — Cherokee District — the southern half of Columbiana Council, Boy Scouts of America — will hold its annual polar bear camp Friday night, Saturday and Sunday at Camp McKinley on the Logtown Rd.

Shawnee District — the northern half of the council's area — has canceled its "polar bear" scheduled Jan. 17-19 because of the flu. However, Camp McKinley will be open to units wishing to tent camp that weekend providing they register in advance at the council's office in Lisbon.

The council's newsletter, "The Packett," announces that the selection of the summer staff for Camp Twin Spruce on Leesville Lake is under way. Interviews will be held at Camp McKinley at 2:30 p.m. Jan. 26 and 2:30 p.m. Feb. 2.

Huston Offers Fiscal Views To Kiwanians

"Inflation will continue, but the percentage will drop," Fred Huston, president of the Central Federal Savings and Loan Association of Wellsville, predicted when he addressed the Wellsville Kiwanis Club Tuesday noon at Meade's Restaurant.

Huston said he expects some of the policies of the Nixon administration to cause a tightening of money, but he can't see a termination of inflation any time in the foreseeable future.

He pointed out, however, that a man he knows in industry told him that if his salary does not double in the next 10 years he will be a candidate for relief.

"In the savings and loan business," Huston said, "interest being paid is the highest in 25 years, but companies are charging correspondingly large rates for money loaned. This does not seem to be effecting the number of loans people are making, and with the housing shortage, both locally and nationwide, there will not be a reduction in the demand for loans," he continued.

Huston told the group he believes the national growth will be slower in 1969, but still will be substantial. He also predicted no recession of any significant nature.

Shawnee District — the northern half of the council's area — has canceled its "polar bear" scheduled Jan. 17-19 because of the flu. However, Camp McKinley will be open to units wishing to tent camp that weekend providing they register in advance at the council's office in Lisbon.

The council's newsletter, "The Packett," announces that the selection of the summer staff for Camp Twin Spruce on Leesville Lake is under way. Interviews will be held at Camp McKinley at 2:30 p.m. Jan. 26 and 2:30 p.m. Feb. 2.

He will outline new agronomic considerations in silage production including production management, yield potential of adapted crops, ensiling procedures, and fermentation.

David Norman, state agricultural engineering extension specialist, will discuss engineering aspects of silage harvesting machinery, structures for storing, unloaders, feeders and storage for high-moisture grains.

John Staubus, state dairy science extension specialist, will tell of the latest innovations in feeding silage to dairy cows, including use of high - moisture corn and urea-treated silage.

Charles Martin, area animal industry agent, will discuss silage use for feeder cattle and the possibility of using it with cow-calf operations.

Marshall Whisler, area agent for farm management, will report on the costs of silage production and handling.

Gipp said the institute is one of a series of 14 being held throughout Ohio this winter by the cooperative extension service.

More Turmoil Ahead

Anyone who had hopes of a move by the board of education toward solving the faculty difficulties in our city schools was disappointed by the unwillingness of the board to accept recommendations about the post of athletic director.

The public has to look to the board for objective and logical answers to the problems of the school district, and the board has not measured up to that requirement.

The dispute within the faculty and administration has stemmed from an increasing rigidity of attitudes of individuals involved, and providing a solution demands a withdrawal from such fixed positions or elimination of the personalities who present obstacles to a progressive and total education program.

Harry McConville has shown a consistent devotion to the varsity sports program in the senior high school, a not undesirable attribute in a board of education member so long as it does not dominate his other responsibilities.

Mr. McConville was opposed to obtaining the survey by the Sebold team, and his motivation for the vote against the separation of the football coach post and that of athletic director he explained in the fine detail—embarrassing other board members and the administrators as in some of his previous stands.

The athletic director-coach position and its teaching duties have been the bone of contention in the school district for some time. It remains the major issue. And regardless of what other school districts do, it has created a staggering difficulty in the successful operations of our schools, and demands not a defense nor an explanation but a solution.

Those board members who now and in the past consider the controversy either fomented by individual "trouble makers," by a few men and women in the teachers association or by small groups of dissidents throughout the community are failing to grasp the scope of disenchantment which began several years ago and has grown to a crisis situation.

The Sebold group which conferred with many in and out of the schools recognized this, and suggested revisions that would have changed the direction in which the schools are now heading . . . bitter confrontation and conflict, which already has brought the attention of the Professional Rights and Responsibilities Commission of the OEA.

An unfortunate lack of regard for some administrators and some board members has been demonstrated by the teaching staff. Defeat of levy proposals . . . new and renewals . . . has revealed a declining public confidence in the administration.

Monday night's vote to ignore a prime recommendation of a group of educators asked to give advice has added nothing to the general image of the board of education, and has given new support to a belief that most of the cast in this tragi-comedy has to be changed before our young people are to receive the education they deserve.

We are now obviously headed for hard times on the education front, devoting time, money and energies in a struggle which need not have taken place and which is diverting the community from the task of improving the schools instead of just trying to rescue them.

Only a willingness on the part of the principal figures to sacrifice themselves and their own interests for the good of the education system can avert further turmoil and chaos.

The Skirmish On Crime

There are all sorts of moral evaluations to be obtained from the 1968 Columbiana County Sheriff's report on the county jail which showed a record 1,545 prisoners on the guest lists during the year.

The daily enrollment of 42 compared to 38 the previous year could have been attributed to an increase in crime, an improvement in enforcement and or detection, a decrease in the capability of criminals or just a run of good luck on the part of the deputies and police or poor luck on the part of those who regard the law lightly.

The rise in the jail population means a greater financial burden upon the taxpayers to care and feed these wayward ones, a further cost of crime apart from the many others which include the original losses, the police work, court expenses and other penal bills.

The jail report for 1968 is not one of glad tidings on any count, for it represents a social setback in terms of deliberate and malicious offenses against other people, carelessness, moral decay, ignorance and a host of other problems which individuals, families, and groups are apparently not solving.

Certainly the statistics issued by the Sheriff should be the subject of real thought by parents, school authorities, governmental executives, church people and business, social and civic leaders throughout the county. The war on crime is not something that is fought at Washington or Columbus or the large cities; we have a sizeable skirmish under way here, and we had better start doing something about it.

New Paris Negotiator

Appointment of Henry Cabot Lodge, present ambassador to West Germany, as chief negotiator for the United States at the Paris talks on Vietnam is being interpreted in some circles as a hint of a harder American line.

Mr. Lodge has twice served as ambassador to Saigon and has established a warm relationship with Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky of South Vietnam.

He is on record against a coalition government for South Vietnam and a unilateral American cease-fire.

IN APRIL OF 1967, after he had resigned as ambassador to South Vietnam, Mr. Lodge described the Viet Cong as a "wildly unpopular" force and warned that putting this "subversive group into the government would mean total defeat."

It is not known if Ambassador Lodge's opinions on Vietnam have changed in the months he has been away from the country but his acceptance statement from Bonn gives a clue.

He noted that "commitments of the past run deep" and "they have been sanctified in the blood of many." Those comments have a familiar ring that goes back to the days that Mr. Lodge served President Kennedy and President Johnson.

What is of utmost importance to the Paris negotiations is President-elect Nixon's views and goals.

Though Mr. Nixon was critical of the military conduct of the war and the pacification program conducted by the Johnson administration, he followed pretty much a hands-off course during his campaign. This was ascribed to the desire not to jeopardize potential progress at Paris.

He pointed out a number of times during the campaign that President Johnson's emissaries in Paris represented not just the administration but also the United States.

The president-elect did promise to end the Vietnam War through negotiation saying that our men have not been "out fought" but the Johnson administration has been "out thought."

It can be expected that Mr. Nixon's personal brand of diplomacy will be more in evidence after his inauguration.

UP TO NOW his actions, including the appointment of Mr. Lodge, are linked to the policies of President Johnson.

The inherent danger in this trend is the weaving of a trap whereby Mr. Nixon would be forced into a position of defending the unsuccessful program formulated by President Johnson.

Should this situation develop, Mr. Nixon would be giving up the most potent weapons his administration could bring to bear on Paris, new thinking and flexibility.

Mr. Nixon still is the key to success at Paris and is fully aware of his responsibility. We will know more about his strategy after he sheds his president-elect status and assumes the presidency Jan. 20.

Knotty And Needy

State Finance Director Holward L. Collier is right when he says the financing of an expanded vocational-technical education program for Ohio will be a knotty problem for the 108th General Assembly.

But there is no denying the need for such a program. The academic-oriented high school program, in failing to meet the need of students who do not go to college, denies equal educational opportunity to all Ohio students.

The same thing is true at the post high school level. Massive amounts of public money are spent at state universities but technical school training has been ignored.

The state can no longer ignore vocational-technical training programs even if they do carry a high price tag.

The $759 million bond issue approved by voters last Nov. 5 had $95 million earmarked for education.

That will serve as the start of the building program but it will be up to lawmakers to provide revenue for staff and operation.

Money is hard to come by but it isn't going to get an easier. There is no alternative. Vocational-technical training is just as important to Ohio's education program as is academic curriculum.

Thousands of students will benefit and so will the state as soon as the program is operational.

'Scorpion' Mystery Probed

Although public announcement has not been made, reliable Pentagon and congressional sources have reported that Navy experts are convinced there was no foul play involved in the tragic sinking of the nuclear submarine Scorpion last May.

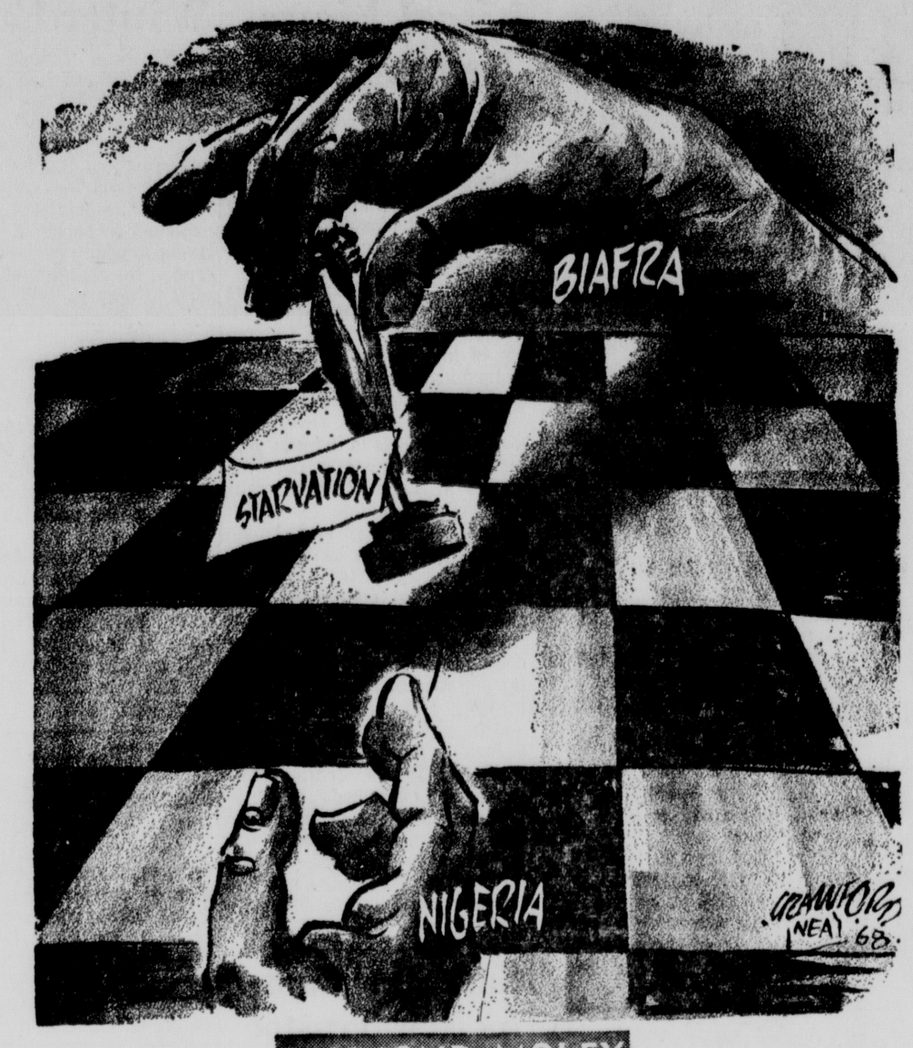
Underwater photos taken by the research ship Mizar are largely responsible for this belief. Apparently the photos clearly suggest that the trouble which caused the sinking occurred within the submarine itself.

This would not rule out internal sabotage but apparently members of the special Navy court of inquiry probing the sinking have eliminated that possibility.

There had been speculation that the Scorpion could have been struck by a torpedo fired by a Soviet submarine or a depth bomb dropped by a Soviet surface vessel. There also was the theory that the Scorpion might have been scraped purposely or accidentally by a ship of another nation. The Scorpion had been detoured to accomplish a secret mission when it disappeared.

There are numerous possible causes of the sinking. No single one has been pinpointed. But it is good news that apparently no foreign power was involved.

Pawn Of War



Taiwan's Land Reform

In April of this year the Republic of China will celebrate the 20th anniversary of the flight of its president, Chiang Kai-shek, with his army and other faithful followers from mainland China to the province of Taiwan. As a successor of President Sun Yat-sen, he also took with him the ideas and plans of that great reformer.

After its arrival, and assured of national security by American sea power and with American economic aid, the new government began the work of shaping the policies of a new nation.

Taiwan (which still regards itself as a province of China), during the many years of Japanese occupation, served mainly as a rice and cane-sugar bowl which exported much of its produce to Japan. The development of industry was not encouraged. Aside from a source of raw materials, it served as a Japanese naval and air base. This was what the Republic of China inherited after the peace of 1945.

SUN YAT-SEN, during his exile in Western countries after the abortive revolution in 1895, was greatly influenced by the concepts of land reform of Henry George and John Stuart Mill. When he returned in 1911 and became president of China, he sought to apply what he called the "equalization of land rights." In the constitution of the new nation on Taiwan, these concepts are spelled out.

Then the Chiang Kai-shek government proceeded to implement these principles step by step. Rent was reduced from 70 per cent of the cash crop to 37.5 per cent. With what the farmer retained, he was able to pay for his land in yearly installments. In a few years 300,000 farmers were able to own their own land.

The government's publicly owned land, taken over from colonial Japan, and what was left in the hands of landlords, gradually moved into the possession of the people who tilled it at a price of roughly 2.5 times the value of an annual crop.

The government's purchase of the holdings of the landlords was aided by U.S. loans administered by the American Security Mission and a Chinese-American Joint Commission on Rural Reconstruction.

According to Karl Brandt of the Hoover Institution of Stanford, who was a member of President Eisenhower's Council of Economic Advisers, the loss to the landlords by this transfer has been more than repaid, since the economic growth of the nation has offered them greater opportunities outside of agriculture. Brandt's summation is this:

"This achieved agrarian reform represents a challenge to all those leaders in developing countries who have been toying with vague ideas of reform:

1. The redistribution of land has fortified the peoples' faith in the institution of property, in land and in guaranteed freedom of management of this resource. Avoidance of confiscation and payment of indemnity to the expropriated part of the land, combined with the general uplift of the economy and the disappearance of conflict between landlords and tenants, have contributed to a feeling of assurance.

2. The new owners have actually paid off within the period of 10 years the entire debt to the Land Bank of Taiwan, thus closing the chapter on agrarian reform.

3. Instead of a reduction of agricultural output that has invariably followed agrarian reform in other countries, the case of Taiwan proves that it is possible to avoid such damage if appropriate opportunities are opened to farmers and if incentives are present."

C. K. YEN, VICE PRESIDENT of the republic, said a year ago that as a result of the reforms 86 per cent of the farm population has become owners of 90 per cent of the productive land in Taiwan.

The prosperity of Taiwan is shown not only by expanding exports and industrial growth but by its influence in other developing countries. For example, it has 450 of its experts serving as advisers in 19 African countries. This greatly exceeds the influence of Red China in that area. Taiwan is even making monetary grants to some of these countries.

But even greater is the influence of its example in the nations of Asia from Iran to Japan.

Timely Quotes

"The younger have shouted that the war is immoral. The older have tolerated it as inescapable. The same division as before is dealing with the inner city, racial inequity and international conflict. The issue of which shall prevail — the moral imperative or the practical accommodation — must be resolved in favor of the moral, in action as well as affirmation. Unless we do so, we shall not bridge the gap between us and our sons, nor will we be fully at one with our own selves. Their lives may be at stake — and certainly our happiness."

— Dr. K. Roald Brgethon, president of Lafayette College.

"The process of leaving Washington after 34 years is a little like drowning. All your past flashes before you."

—Lady Bird Johnson, in a farewell address to the Women's National Press Club.

"People think I'm on a woman's crusade. I'm not. People think I'm looking for publicity. That's not it either . . . I just want to ride horses."

— Penny Ann Early, whose licensing as a jockey caused a boycott by male jockeys at Churchill Downs, Louisville, Ky.

"We have nothing to show but a fleet of cars that won't run and a flock of potential passengers who no longer take the project seriously."

— Sen. Gordon Allot, R-Colo, criticizing the delay in the government's Washington-to-New York high-speed train project.

Berry's World

"Now let me get this straight — which one of you is for the Jets and which one of you is for the Colts?"

Musings From Max

By MARTIN MILLER

Proposed changes in the Electoral College system of electing our presidents make me blow hot and cold. After hearing or reading an argument in favor of a change I lean that way and then back in support of the present system when I hear an argument that way.

Mostly I lean against changing the present setup which has worked well and has some definite advantages it might be risky to tinker with.

That recent historic moon trip is sort of like a magician's show. You see it but you find it hard to believe.

To this second-guesser it looked as though the Cleveland Browns weren't quite "up" for the National Football League championship game with the Baltimore Colts as much as they were "up" for the conference title game with the Dallas Cowboys.

What can you expect of the peasants when royalty, itself, violates the law by protests? The Duchess of Medina-Sidonia got a year in the hoosegow in Spain for leading an illegal demonstration in protest against what she considered inadequate U.S. payments for damage by radiation from that bomber that crashed there in 1966. Protests know no class lines.

Conjecture that Red China's fear of Russia may drive it into the arms (pardon the unpardonable pun) of the U.S. sounds about as far out as the Apollo 8 trip. But stranger things have happened.

Another thing the Apollo 8 flight did was to give the Flat Earth Society of Britain a chance to break into the news. The society is withholding comment pending an agonizing reappraisal of its belief that the earth is flat and that the sun and moon revolve around the North Pole.

It hardly seems news anymore when Russia tries to suppress free thought and criticism but the practice seems so strange to our free and open society that it still is news. Which is as it should be.

Three Soviet intellectuals were sentenced to prison for circulating anti-Soviet books.

About the same time Gus Hall, general secretary of the Communist Party in the U.S., was publishing a tract defending the Soviet occupation of Czechoslovakia.

The chief thing his tract did was to highlight the difference between the freedom in this country and the repression under communism.

Speaking of intellectuals, the January Harper's has a dandy article by Eric F. Goldman titled "The White House and the Intellectuals."

It describes that dustup President Johnson got into when he invited a bunch of poets, novelists, musicians and painters to the White House in 1965. Neither side covered itself with glory but offhand it seems that President Johnson came off slightly the better, at least on this typewriter.

President-elect Nixon and his top foreign policy advisers are making plans to handle the world's major trouble spots. Whatdayawanna bet they get their worst surprises from places they never thought of? But we all hope not.

Happy New Year. Whoopee!

Thoughts

"For whoever has despised the day of small things shall rejoice, and shall see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel. These seven are the eyes of the Lord, which range through the whole earth" —Zechariah 4:10.

"Behold, happy is the man whom God reproves; therefore despise not the chastening of the Almighty." —Job 5:17.

Through The Years

THIRTY YEARS AGO — Mrs. Ruth Tucker was installed as noble grand of Ohio City Rebekah Lodge 782.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mackey and son Lee Robert of Mulberry St. returned home after a two-week visit in Florida.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — The Junior Chamber of Commerce here joined with the Ohio Jaycees in sponsoring the third annual trip to the New Orleans Mardi Gras, with Don Smith as chairman of arrangements.

Equipment of the Calcutta Cemetery Association was damaged extensively when fire gutted the interior of a tool shed near the Calcutta United Presbyterian Church.

TEN YEARS AGO — James Lowe, retiring president of the Board of Education, announced that a $2,725,000 building program launched about six years ago, had been completed with a balance of $800.

Dr. William S. Banfield was re-elected president of the Stanton Local Board of Education and Lawrence Rudder was returned as vice president.

More Turmoil Ahead

Anyone who had hopes of a move by the board of education toward solving the faculty difficulties in our city schools was disappointed by the unwillingness of the board to accept recommendations about the post of athletic director.

The public has to look to the board for objective and logical answers to the problems of the school district, and the board has not measured up to that requirement.

The dispute within the faculty and administration has stemmed from an increasing rigidity of attitudes of individuals involved, and providing a solution demands a withdrawal from such fixed positions or elimination of the personalities who present obstacles to a progressive and total education program.

Harry McConville has shown a consistent devotion to the varsity sports program in the senior high school, a not undesirable attribute in a board of education member so long as it does not dominate his other responsibilities.

Mr. McConville was opposed to obtaining the survey by the Sebold team, and his motivation for the vote against the separation of the football coach post and that of athletic director he explained in the fine detail—embarrassing other board members and the administrators as in some of his previous stands.

The athletic director-coach position and its teaching duties have been the bone of contention in the school district for some time. It remains the major issue. And regardless of what other school districts do, it has created a staggering difficulty in the successful operations of our schools, and demands not a defense nor an explanation but a solution.

Those board members who now and in the past consider the controversy either fomented by individual "trouble makers," by a few men and women in the teachers association or by small groups of dissidents throughout the community are failing to grasp the scope of disenchantment which began several years ago and has grown to a crisis situation.

The Sebold group which conferred with many in and out of the schools recognized this, and suggested revisions that would have changed the direction in which the schools are now heading . . . bitter confrontation and conflict, which already has brought the attention of the Professional Rights and Responsibilities Commission of the OEA.

An unfortunate lack of regard for some administrators and some board members has been demonstrated by the teaching staff. Defeat of levy proposals . . . new and renewals . . . has revealed a declining public confidence in the administration.

Monday night's vote to ignore a prime recommendation of a group of educators asked to give advice has added nothing to the general image of the board of education, and has given new support to a belief that most of the cast in this tragi-comedy has to be changed before our young people are to receive the education they deserve.

We are now obviously headed for hard times on the education front, devoting time, money and energies in a struggle which need not have taken place and which is diverting the community from the task of improving the schools instead of just trying to rescue them.

Only a willingness on the part of the principal figures to sacrifice themselves and their own interests for the good of the education system can avert further turmoil and chaos.

The Skirmish On Crime

There are all sorts of moral evaluations to be obtained from the 1968 Columbiana County Sheriff's report on the county jail which showed a record 1,545 prisoners on the guest lists during the year.

The daily enrollment of 42 compared to 38 the previous year could have been attributed to an increase in crime, an improvement in enforcement and or detection, a decrease in the capability of criminals or just a run of good luck on the part of the deputies and police or poor luck on the part of those who regard the law lightly.

The rise in the jail population means a greater financial burden upon the taxpayers to care and feed these wayward ones, a further cost of crime apart from the many others which include the original losses, the police work, court expenses and other penal bills.

The jail report for 1968 is not one of glad tidings on any count, for it represents a social setback in terms of deliberate and malicious offenses against other people, carelessness, moral decay, ignorance and a host of other problems which individuals, families, and groups are apparently not solving.

Certainly the statistics issued by the Sheriff should be the subject of real thought by parents, school authorities, governmental executives, church people and business, social and civic leaders throughout the county. The war on crime is not something that is fought at Washington or Columbus or the large cities; we have a sizeable skirmish under way here, and we had better start doing something about it.

New Paris Negotiator

Appointment of Henry Cabot Lodge, present ambassador to West Germany, as chief negotiator for the United States at the Paris talks on Vietnam is being interpreted in some circles as a hint of a harder American line.

Mr. Lodge has twice served as ambassador to Saigon and has established a warm relationship with Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky of South Vietnam.

He is on record against a coalition government for South Vietnam and a unilateral American cease-fire.

IN APRIL OF 1967, after he had resigned as ambassador to South Vietnam, Mr. Lodge described the Viet Cong as a "wildly unpopular" force and warned that putting this "subversive group into the government would mean total defeat."

It is not known if Ambassador Lodge's opinions on Vietnam have changed in the months he has been away from the country but his acceptance statement from Bonn gives a clue.

He noted that "commitments of the past run deep" and "they have been sanctified in the blood of many." Those comments have a familiar ring that goes back to the days that Mr. Lodge served President Kennedy and President Johnson.

What is of utmost importance to the Paris negotiations is President-elect Nixon's views and goals.

Though Mr. Nixon was critical of the military conduct of the war and the pacification program conducted by the Johnson administration, he followed pretty much a hands-off course during his campaign. This was ascribed to the desire not to jeopardize potential progress at Paris.

He pointed out a number of times during the campaign that President Johnson's emissaries in Paris represented not just the administration but also the United States.

The president-elect did promise to end the Vietnam War through negotiation saying that our men have not been "out fought" but the Johnson administration has been "out thought."

It can be expected that Mr. Nixon's personal brand of diplomacy will be more in evidence after his inauguration.

UP TO NOW his actions, including the appointment of Mr. Lodge, are linked to the policies of President Johnson.

The inherent danger in this trend is the weaving of a trap whereby Mr. Nixon would be forced into a position of defending the unsuccessful program formulated by President Johnson.

Should this situation develop, Mr. Nixon would be giving up the most potent weapons his administration could bring to bear on Paris, new thinking and flexibility.

Mr. Nixon still is the key to success at Paris and is fully aware of his responsibility. We will know more about his strategy after he sheds his president-elect status and assumes the presidency Jan. 20.

Knotty And Needy

State Finance Director Holward L. Collier is right when he says the financing of an expanded vocational-technical education program for Ohio will be a knotty problem for the 108th General Assembly.

But there is no denying the need for such a program. The academic-oriented high school program, in failing to meet the need of students who do not go to college, denies equal educational opportunity to all Ohio students.

The same thing is true at the post high school level. Massive amounts of public money are spent at state universities but technical school training has been ignored.

The state can no longer ignore vocational-technical training programs even if they do carry a high price tag.

The $759 million bond issue approved by voters last Nov. 5 had $95 million earmarked for education.

That will serve as the start of the building program but it will be up to lawmakers to provide revenue for staff and operation.

Money is hard to come by but it isn't going to get an easier. There is no alternative. Vocational-technical training is just as important to Ohio's education program as is academic curriculum.

Thousands of students will benefit and so will the state as soon as the program is operational.

'Scorpion' Mystery Probed

Although public announcement has not been made, reliable Pentagon and congressional sources have reported that Navy experts are convinced there was no foul play involved in the tragic sinking of the nuclear submarine Scorpion last May.

Underwater photos taken by the research ship Mizar are largely responsible for this belief. Apparently the photos clearly suggest that the trouble which caused the sinking occurred within the submarine itself.

This would not rule out internal sabotage but apparently members of the special Navy court of inquiry probing the sinking have eliminated that possibility.

There had been speculation that the Scorpion could have been struck by a torpedo fired by a Soviet submarine or a depth bomb dropped by a Soviet surface vessel. There also was the theory that the Scorpion might have been scraped purposely or accidentally by a ship of another nation. The Scorpion had been detoured to accomplish a secret mission when it disappeared.

There are numerous possible causes of the sinking. No single one has been pinpointed. But it is good news that apparently no foreign power was involved.

Pawn Of War

Taiwan's Land Reform

In April of this year the Republic of China will celebrate the 20th anniversary of the flight of its president, Chiang Kai-shek, with his army and other faithful followers from mainland China to the province of Taiwan. As a successor of President Sun Yat-sen, he also took with him the ideas and plans of that great reformer.

After its arrival, and assured of national security by American sea power and with American economic aid, the new government began the work of shaping the policies of a new nation.

Taiwan (which still regards itself as a province of China), during the many years of Japanese occupation, served mainly as a rice and cane-sugar bowl which exported much of its produce to Japan. The development of industry was not encouraged. Aside from a source of raw materials, it served as a Japanese naval and air base. This was what the Republic of China inherited after the peace of 1945.

SUN YAT-SEN, during his exile in Western countries after the abortive revolution in 1895, was greatly influenced by the concepts of land reform of Henry George and John Stuart Mill. When he returned in 1911 and became president of China, he sought to apply what he called the "equalization of land rights." In the constitution of the new nation on Taiwan, these concepts are spelled out.

Then the Chiang Kai-shek government proceeded to implement these principles step by step. Rent was reduced from 70 per cent of the cash crop to 37.5 per cent. With what the farmer retained, he was able to pay for his land in yearly installments. In a few years 300,000 farmers were able to own their own land.

The government's publicly owned land, taken over from colonial Japan, and what was left in the hands of landlords, gradually moved into the possession of the people who tilled it at a price of roughly 2.5 times the value of an annual crop.

The government's purchase of the holdings of the landlords was aided by U.S. loans administered by the American Security Mission and a Chinese-American Joint Commission on Rural Reconstruction.

According to Karl Brandt of the Hoover Institution of Stanford, who was a member of President Eisenhower's Council of Economic Advisers, the loss to the landlords by this transfer has been more than repaid, since the economic growth of the nation has offered them greater opportunities outside of agriculture. Brandt's summation is this:

"This achieved agrarian reform represents a challenge to all those leaders in developing countries who have been toying with vague ideas of reform:

1. The redistribution of land has fortified the peoples' faith in the institution of property, in land and in guaranteed freedom of management of this resource. Avoidance of confiscation and payment of indemnity to the expropriated part of the land, combined with the general uplift of the economy and the disappearance of conflict between landlords and tenants, have contributed to a feeling of assurance.

2. The new owners have actually paid off within the period of 10 years the entire debt to the Land Bank of Taiwan, thus closing the chapter on agrarian reform.

3. Instead of a reduction of agricultural output that has invariably followed agrarian reform in other countries, the case of Taiwan proves that it is possible to avoid such damage if appropriate opportunities are opened to farmers and if incentives are present."

C. K. YEN, VICE PRESIDENT of the republic, said a year ago that as a result of the reforms 86 per cent of the farm population has become owners of 90 per cent of the productive land in Taiwan.

The prosperity of Taiwan is shown not only by expanding exports and industrial growth but by its influence in other developing countries. For example, it has 450 of its experts serving as advisers in 19 African countries. This greatly exceeds the influence of Red China in that area. Taiwan is even making monetary grants to some of these countries.

But even greater is the influence of its example in the nations of Asia from Iran to Japan.

Timely Quotes

"The younger have shouted that the war is immoral. The older have tolerated it as inescapable. The same division as before is dealing with the inner city, racial inequity and international conflict. The issue of which shall prevail — the moral imperative or the practical accommodation — must be resolved in favor of the moral, in action as well as affirmation. Unless we do so, we shall not bridge the gap between us and our sons, nor will we be fully at one with our own selves. Their lives may be at stake — and certainly our happiness."

— Dr. K. Roald Brgethon, president of Lafayette College.

"The process of leaving Washington after 34 years is a little like drowning. All your past flashes before you."

—Lady Bird Johnson, in a farewell address to the Women's National Press Club.

"People think I'm on a woman's crusade. I'm not. People think I'm looking for publicity. That's not it either . . . I just want to ride horses."

— Penny Ann Early, whose licensing as a jockey caused a boycott by male jockeys at Churchill Downs, Louisville, Ky.

"We have nothing to show but a fleet of cars that won't run and a flock of potential passengers who no longer take the project seriously."

— Sen. Gordon Allot, R-Colo, criticizing the delay in the government's Washington-to-New York high-speed train project.

Musings From Max

By MARTIN MILLER

Proposed changes in the Electoral College system of electing our presidents make me blow hot and cold. After hearing or reading an argument in favor of a change I lean that way and then back in support of the present system when I hear an argument that way.

Mostly I lean against changing the present setup which has worked well and has some definite advantages it might be risky to tinker with.

That recent historic moon trip is sort of like a magician's show. You see it but you find it hard to believe.

To this second-guesser it looked as though the Cleveland Browns weren't quite "up" for the National Football League championship game with the Baltimore Colts as much as they were "up" for the conference title game with the Dallas Cowboys.

What can you expect of the peasants when royalty, itself, violates the law by protests? The Duchess of Medina-Sidonia got a year in the hoosegow in Spain for leading an illegal demonstration in protest against what she considered inadequate U.S. payments for damage by radiation from that bomber that crashed there in 1966. Protests know no class lines.

Conjecture that Red China's fear of Russia may drive it into the arms (pardon the unpardonable pun) of the U.S. sounds about as far out as the Apollo 8 trip. But stranger things have happened.

Another thing the Apollo 8 flight did was to give the Flat Earth Society of Britain a chance to break into the news. The society is withholding comment pending an agonizing reappraisal of its belief that the earth is flat and that the sun and moon revolve around the North Pole.

It hardly seems news anymore when Russia tries to suppress free thought and criticism but the practice seems so strange to our free and open society that it still is news. Which is as it should be.

Three Soviet intellectuals were sentenced to prison for circulating anti-Soviet books.

About the same time Gus Hall, general secretary of the Communist Party in the U.S., was publishing a tract defending the Soviet occupation of Czechoslovakia.

The chief thing his tract did was to highlight the difference between the freedom in this country and the repression under communism.

Speaking of intellectuals, the January Harper's has a dandy article by Eric F. Goldman titled "The White House and the Intellectuals."

It describes that dustup President Johnson got into when he invited a bunch of poets, novelists, musicians and painters to the White House in 1965. Neither side covered itself with glory but offhand it seems that President Johnson came off slightly the better, at least on this typewriter.

President-elect Nixon and his top foreign policy advisers are making plans to handle the world's major trouble spots. Whatdayawanna bet they get their worst surprises from places they never thought of? But we all hope not.

Happy New Year. Whoopee!

Editor Baggs, Intermediary In Peace Talks, Dies At 48

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — William Calhoun Baggs, a newspaper editor nominated for the Nobel Peace Prize after acting as an intermediary in preliminary peace-talk negotiations between Hanoi and Washington, died Tuesday. He was 48.

Baggs, editor of the Miami News, was a persistent and articulate critic in his daily newspaper columns of President Johnson's Vietnam policy. A bomber pilot in World War II, he strenuously objected to American bombing of North Vietnam.

In January 1967 and in the spring of 1968 Baggs and Harry S. Ashmore, chairman of the executive committee of the Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions, traveled to North Vietnam. Baggs was on the center's board.

He was the only American journalist known to have visited Hanoi twice. Last April 5 he and Ashmore returned from the North Vietnamese capital with a secret message from the Central Committee of the Democratic Republic of Vietnam to the U.S. government.

The message said that nothing of substance would be discussed at peace talks until the United States met certain conditions including "cessation of U.S. bombing raids and all other acts of war," Baggs said later.

President Johnson halted bombing of the North on Nov. 1 and the North Vietnamese agreed to expanded peace talks.

Baggs and Ashmore wrote a book titled "Mission to Hanoi: A Chronicle of Double-dealing in High Places," after they returned from Vietnam. The book contended double-dealing had come from the Johnson administration, not Hanoi.

Baggs made articles about his mission to Hanoi available to The Associated Press. The Associated Press Managing Editors presented him an award for the series.

Baggs was nominated for the Nobel Peace Prize in 1968.

He was admitted to Miami Heart Institute on Dec. 29 suffering from pneumonia and influenza. He went into a coma after doctors performed a tracheotomy Sunday, and he never recovered. He died at 6:05 p.m.

Baggs is survived by his widow, the former Joan Orr, and two sons, Craig and Robert.

There are more than 3,000 restaurants within the city limits of Paris, France, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Registration Reminder Set On Health District Plumbing

LISBON — Anyone doing plumbing in the Columbiana County general Health District, other than in his own home, must be registered with the County Board of Health, which has jurisdiction in all parts of the county except the four cities, according to Dr. M. K. Singer, county health commissioner.

Recently - enacted additions to the county plumbing code became effective Jan. 1 and require that any person, partnership or corporation desiring to engage in plumbing in the General Health District shall first register and shall post a performance bond of $1,000 satisfactory to the County Board of Health guaranteeing compliance with the health district regulations covering the installation of plumbing and sewage disposal and insuring that no person other than a registered plumber shall work at the actual installation of plumbing in any building.

The fee for registering a master plumber is $50 for the first year and $25 for each year thereafter if renewal is made before Jan. 15 of the following year. The fee for a journeyman plumber shall be $10 the first year and $5 for each succeeding year if the registration is renewed before Jan. 15.

Dr. Singer said master plumbers and journeyman may register at the County Health Department office on the third floor of the Courthouse from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Dr. Singer said the regulation should not be construed as prohibiting employment of apprentices or laborers as assistants to registered plumbers.

However, the health department will issue a permit for plumbing work only to a registered master plumber or to a home owner who declares he will do his own work or hire a master plumber to do it. All plumbing work must be inspected by the county health department inspector.

Jail Inmates Hit New High

LISBON — The Columbiana County Jail booked a record 1,545 prisoners in 1968, compared with 1,398 in 1967, Sheriff Russell J. Van Fossan reports.

He said the total included 178 juveniles — 26 more than the year before. The jail had an average of 42 prisoners a day, compared with 38 the previous year.

Jail cooks served 46,882 meals at a cost of 38.8 cents per meal. The 1967 figures were 41,892 meals at 40.7 cents per serving. There were 3,190 visitors at the jail last year, 454 more than the year before.

The sheriff's cars traveled and patroled 224,488 miles last year, compared with 217,809 in 1967. Van Fossan and his deputies transported 19 prisoners to the Ohio State Penitentiary, 24 to the Ohio State Reformatory and seven to Lima State Hospital. They conveyed 32 mental patients to other state institutions.

Other 1968 statistics follow, with 1967 figures in parentheses:

Civil papers served, 4,389 (4,152); warrants, 438 (443); indictments, 145 (69); sheriff's sales, 141 (113), bringing in $371,323 ($627,554); radio transmissions, 62,119 (59,507), and telephone calls, 17,557 (17,105).

The sheriff's office at the Courthouse accepted 363 sets of fox feet and ears for the $3 bounty last year. The county paid bounty on 372 foxes in 1967.

Police are continuing the investigation.

Editor Baggs, Intermediary In Peace Talks, Dies At 48

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — William Calhoun Baggs, a newspaper editor nominated for the Nobel Peace Prize after acting as an intermediary in preliminary peace-talk negotiations between Hanoi and Washington, died Tuesday. He was 48.

Baggs, editor of the Miami News, was a persistent and articulate critic in his daily newspaper columns of President Johnson's Vietnam policy. A bomber pilot in World War II, he strenuously objected to American bombing of North Vietnam.

In January 1967 and in the spring of 1968 Baggs and Harry S. Ashmore, chairman of the executive committee of the Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions, traveled to North Vietnam. Baggs was on the center's board.

He was the only American journalist known to have visited Hanoi twice. Last April 5 he and Ashmore returned from the North Vietnamese capital with a secret message from the Central Committee of the Democratic Republic of Vietnam to the U.S. government.

The message said that nothing of substance would be discussed at peace talks until the United States met certain conditions including "cessation of U.S. bombing raids and all other acts of war," Baggs said later.

President Johnson halted bombing of the North on Nov. 1 and the North Vietnamese agreed to expanded peace talks.

Baggs and Ashmore wrote a book titled "Mission to Hanoi: A Chronicle of Double-dealing in High Places," after they returned from Vietnam. The book contended double-dealing had come from the Johnson administration, not Hanoi.

Baggs made articles about his mission to Hanoi available to The Associated Press. The Associated Press Managing Editors presented him an award for the series.

Baggs was nominated for the Nobel Peace Prize in 1968.

He was admitted to Miami Heart Institute on Dec. 29 suffering from pneumonia and influenza. He went into a coma after doctors performed a tracheotomy Sunday, and he never recovered. He died at 6:05 p.m.

Baggs is survived by his widow, the former Joan Orr, and two sons, Craig and Robert.

There are more than 3,000 restaurants within the city limits of Paris, France, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

James Whitcomb Riley, the Hoosier poet, wrote under the pseudonym of Benjamin F. Johnson.

Registration Reminder Set On Health District Plumbing

LISBON — Anyone doing plumbing in the Columbiana County general Health District, other than in his own home, must be registered with the County Board of Health, which has jurisdiction in all parts of the county except the four cities, according to Dr. M. K. Singer, county health commissioner.

Recently - enacted additions to the county plumbing code became effective Jan. 1 and require that any person, partnership or corporation desiring to engage in plumbing in the General Health District shall first register and shall post a performance bond of $1,000 satisfactory to the County Board of Health guaranteeing compliance with the health district regulations covering the installation of plumbing and sewage disposal and insuring that no person other than a registered plumber shall work at the actual installation of plumbing in any building.

The fee for registering a master plumber is $50 for the first year and $25 for each year thereafter if renewal is made before Jan. 15 of the following year. The fee for a journeyman plumber shall be $10 the first year and $5 for each succeeding year if the registration is renewed before Jan. 15.

Dr. Singer said master plumbers and journeyman may register at the County Health Department office on the third floor of the Courthouse from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Dr. Singer said the regulation should not be construed as prohibiting employment of apprentices or laborers as assistants to registered plumbers.

However, the health department will issue a permit for plumbing work only to a registered master plumber or to a home owner who declares he will do his own work or hire a master plumber to do it. All plumbing work must be inspected by the county health department inspector.

Jail Inmates Hit New High

LISBON — The Columbiana County Jail booked a record 1,545 prisoners in 1968, compared with 1,398 in 1967, Sheriff Russell J. Van Fossan reports.

He said the total included 178 juveniles — 26 more than the year before. The jail had an average of 42 prisoners a day, compared with 38 the previous year.

Jail cooks served 46,882 meals at a cost of 38.8 cents per meal. The 1967 figures were 41,892 meals at 40.7 cents per serving. There were 3,190 visitors at the jail last year, 454 more than the year before.

The sheriff's cars traveled and patroled 224,488 miles last year, compared with 217,809 in 1967. Van Fossan and his deputies transported 19 prisoners to the Ohio State Penitentiary, 24 to the Ohio State Reformatory and seven to Lima State Hospital. They conveyed 32 mental patients to other state institutions.

Other 1968 statistics follow, with 1967 figures in parentheses:

Civil papers served, 4,389 (4,152); warrants, 438 (443); indictments, 145 (69); sheriff's sales, 141 (113), bringing in $371,323 ($627,554); radio transmissions, 62,119 (59,507), and telephone calls, 17,557 (17,105).

The sheriff's office at the Courthouse accepted 363 sets of fox feet and ears for the $3 bounty last year. The county paid bounty on 372 foxes in 1967.

Bycroft School Classes Begin

LISBON — Classes are being held in the new Robert Bycroft School for Retarded Children on the Columbiana County Home farm on Route 172, three miles west of here.

Mrs. Harold Martsolf of Salem, supervisor, said the move from the Elkton and Lisbon buildings was made last week, with some of the hauling being done on New Year's Day.

SHE SAID the shift was imperative because water pipes burst in the Elkton building and because of the difficulty in coordinating operations at three locations — the Elkton building, a storeroom classroom on W. Lincoln Way and the Sheltered Workshop for Retarded in the county office building on E. Washington St.

Construction of the $389,000 school began in December a year ago. Workmen are completing electrical work and painting while classes are in session.

The desks and chairs in use are on loan from the Beaver Local board of education. Beaver Local also owns the former retarded school at Elkton.

Construction costs left nothing for equipping the new building. Mrs. Martsolf said various organizations are offering help as they learn of the need. The only cafeteria equipment at present includes two portable roasters, a used refrigerator and a used electric stove.

The enrollment is 106 youngsters in eight classes. Another 40 are enrolled in the Sheltered Workship at Lisbon. When plans for the new school were prepared three years ago, they included space for the Sheltered Workshop. That feature had to be dropped because of construction costs, so the workshop will continue in the county building here.

CONSTRUCTION of the new school was delayed for approximately a year because of a dispute over the site. Originally, the county-owned Rogers farm on Route 7 north of Rogers was selected, but a change in the board of commissioners resulted in the switch to the County Home farm. Building costs mounted during the delay.

The commissioners and Mrs. Martsolf will go to Columbus Jan. 21 to request state help in equipping the school. They will meet with Kenneth M. Mahan, coordinator of construction programs for the Ohio Department of Mental Hygiene and Correction.

Robert Bycroft, for whom the school is named, was former county welfare director. He died Sept. 30, 1966, a few hours after suffering a heart attack in his office here.

Grand Jury Resumes Studies Of 39 Cases

LISBON — The Columbiana County Grand Jury convened at 9 a. m. today to examine 23 witnesses in nine criminal cases scheduled today.

Sworn in Tuesday, the panel of 15 and one alternate heard 12 witnesses in four cases yesterday.

Fourteen cases are on the list for Thursday and a like number for Friday. The schedule calls for the jury to report Monday to Judge Joel H. Sharp in Common Pleas Court.

Pollution

land picketed the Ohio Edison

Mrs. Mitchell pointed out that the community of 2,600 "is the aerial garbage dump for 82.9 tons of dust fall per square mile each month. This one coal-burning industry is polluting the air in parts of Ohio, West Virginia and Pennsylvania."

FOLLOWING the meetings and picketing, D.E. Wooldridge, general superintendent of production and transmission for Ohio Edison, met with the committee in September and promised to make changes at the Toronto plant. The changes, however, will not be completed until mid-1970. They will include new and higher stacks.

The Mayor's Committee met again Tuesday night and will ask New Cumberland Council at tonight's meeting to draw up a resolution asking assistance in interstate abatement. This step is being taken to seek aide from federal agencies, it was explained.

The resolution first must be drawn by Council, then endorsed by the governor of West Virginia and the commissioners of West Virginia Air Pollution before being presented to the U.S. Department of Health Education and Welfare.

The committee also will obtain another speaker on air pollution for its next public meeting in April.

Witness Clears Driver And Then Faces Affidavit

It was a case of "out of the frying pan into the fire" in a Municipal Court trial Tuesday for a 35-year-old East Liverpool man charged with three traffic violations.

The testimony of a defense witness got the driver out of the frying pan, but the witness then wound up in the fire.

Alfred I. Higgins of 770 Dresden Ave. was charged with driving while under the influence of alcohol, failure to stop after an accident and driving after his operator's license had been suspended. The charges followed a mishap Dec. 5 in which an auto hit a utility pole on St. Clair Ave. near Walnut St., but the driver was not at the scene when police arrived.

Barbara Hager of Vernia St., a friend of Higgins, testified that she was the driver. That absolved Higgins. All three traffic counts were dismissed, but he was fined on a public intoxication charge.

Then Patrolman James Buckley, the investigating officer, filed an affidavit against the Hager woman accusing her of leaving the scene of an accident. The court set her hearing Monday and fixed bond at $200.

2 From Beaver Head House Committees

HARRISBURG — Two Beaver County men have been named chairmen of committees in the Pennsylvania House.

Announced Tuesday by new House Speaker Herbert Fineman of Philadelphia, they are Charles D. Stone of Beaver, who will head the Judiciary Committee, and Robert K. Hamilton as Ways and Means chairman.

Introduced In Ohio Assembly

Bills Urge Death Penalty Ban, Voting Age Of 18

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Sen. Oliver Ocasek D - 27 Summit, who Tuesday introduced resolutions to abolish the death penalty and to lower the voting age, is hoping his perennial proposals will receive legislative approval this time around.

Ocasek predicted another "uphill battle" in trying to do away with capital punishment.

"But 10 years ago when I put in annual sessions everyone said I was crazy and that it would never pass," Ocasek said, adding that it was finally successful last season.

Both of Ocasek's resolutions will have their fifth go - round this session. Both propose constitutional amendments which would have to be put to a vote of the people.

Similar measures in previous sessions have had little success, with most being bottled up in committees. Last session the Senate Judiciary Committee finally reported out Ocasek's capital punishment measure but it never came up for a vote in the Senate.

Ocasek said the lawyers on the Judiciary Committee do not like his resolution because lawyers like to get death penalty convictions. But he added:

"No one has been executed in Ohio since March 1963. This indicates to me that the (state) administration believes the death penalty is basically wrong."

There are now 28 men on death row at the Ohio Penitentiary.

Ocasek said he is against the death penalty because he feels those who commit murder are "criminally insane or mentally deranged and should be treated in a mental hospital."

He said if the measure passed he would favor taking the power of pardon for murder conviction away from the governor and giving it to the court that pronounced sentence.

Ocasek's second resolution would lower the voting age from 21 to 19 and would make 21 the legal age for holding either appointive or elective office in Ohio.

The first resolution to lower the voting age to 19 was introduced Monday. Similar resolutions are expected to be introduced in the House.

Sens. Douglas Applegate D-30 Steubenville and William B. Nye D-28 Summit co-sponsored the voting age resolution.

Ocasek, one of the busiest legislators on the second day of the 108th General Assembly, also co-sponsored another measure that would increase the penalty for a person convicted of medical quackery.

The bill provides that no person shall sell or administer drugs, substances or treatments represented as a preventive treatment or cure for disease or physical defect with intent to defraud.

The bill does not apply to bonafide testing of preventives or treatments, prescriptions of harmless substances for psychological benefits or treatment by prayer alone.

The bill would raise the maximum penalty for a first offense to a fine up to $1,000 or a year in prison, or both. The present maximum penalty is a $500 fine and 20 days in jail.

In the House, Speaker Charles F. Kurfess R-4 Wood urged members "to get their bills in . . . so we can have a productive session. The time to start on that is now."

The House, far behind the Senate, approved several housekeeping resolutions, including establishing auto mileage rates for representatives and committee room assignments.

The House is still one member short, having to name a replacement for the late Rep. Robert G. Jones R-62 Columbus, who died of injuries suffered in an auto accident here last November.

Jacob A. Shawan, former Franklin County Commissioner and former state representative, is reportedly in line to succeed Jones, but apparently there is some question whether Shawan is a legal resident in the 62nd District in Columbus.

'New Authority' Urged On Ohio Pension Funds

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A legislative committee said Tuesday that local governments should be given "new and expanded authority" to tap new sources of revenue so cities owing the Police and Firemen's Pension Fund could pay off their debts.

The Legislative Service Commission committee studying the funding of the pension fund stressed that such new revenue would be used to meet their "total financial needs."

Cities owe an estimated $413 million in accrued liability to the statewide fund created by the 1965 legislature. Some cities have no debts, but others have huge debts because their pension funds were not actuarially sound when turned over to the state.

On Monday a committee member, Sen. John H. Weeks R - 25 Cuyahoga, introduced a bill in the Senate which he said would provide the increased revenue to help cities pay off their debts.

His bill would allow city councils to adopt a maximum 2 per cent city income tax without a vote of the people. The present limit is 1 per cent.

The committee, appointed by the last legislature, made six other recommendations to the 108th General Assembly which convened Monday:

—That the funding of the pensions be continued on an actuarially sound basis (100 per cent).

—That the final responsibility for the payment of any unpaid portions of the accrued debt remain with the local governments.

—That no further delays or changes be made in the present schedule of payments on the accrued debt.

Young Driver Cited In Mishap At Lisbon

LISBON — Police said a 1961 sedan driven by Donald A. Adams, 16, of Lisbon RD 5, struck the rear of a stopped car operated by William E. Moore, 17, of Lisbon RD 2, at 8:15 p. m. Tuesday on W. Lincoln Way at the Beaver St. intersection.

Moore was eastbound on Lincoln Way, and had stopped for the Beaver St. light, police said. They estimated $75 damage to the rear of his car and $275 damage to the front end of the other car, owned by Thelma Adams. Young Adams was referred to Juvenile Court on a charge of failure to stop in an assured clear distance.

miles of 69,000 - volt line and numerous distribution conversions in the Wellsville - Hammondsville - Summitville area, at a cost of $629,000, will serve new customers and bolster service capacity.

Largest project in the division for 1969 is a new 138,000 - volt transmission substation and eight miles of new line of the same voltage which will benefit customers in Steubenville's West End.

New super-generating units, giant transmission lines and substations, modern distribution facilities and a variety of other highly efficient tools and equipment are included in the new year's forecast, according to Ohio Power's executive vice president, A. N. Prentice, of Canton.

"This marks the fourth consecutive year that our expansion program has exceeded $100 million," Prentice said, "and brings to more than a half-billion dollars the amount invested in the four-year period 1966-69. Never before in our long history have we been required to plan, design, build and finance a construction program of this magnitude."

A lengthy preliminary hearing was under way this morning before Acting Municipal Judge Robert Kapp for Glen Ronald Koping, 18, of 1003 Washington St., Newell, accused of a $75 armed robbery early the morning of Dec. 23 at the Midway Diner on the River Rd.

Represented by Bernard Fineman, Koping pleaded not guilty. Solicitor J. Michael Kapp is prosecuting the case. The affidavit was signed by Det. Capt. Kenneth Mooney and Det. William A. Devon.

The prosecution expected to present at least four witnesses —Devon, Mabel Blake and Isabell Moore, employes of the diner, and Robert Heiney, 23, of 623½ Minerva St., one of three patrons at the time of the stickup. Heiney, first to testify today, pointed out Koping as the man who staged the stickup with a ski mask concealing his face.

Bycroft School Classes Begin

LISBON — Classes are being held in the new Robert Bycroft School for Retarded Children on the Columbiana County Home farm on Route 172, three miles west of here.

Mrs. Harold Martsolf of Salem, supervisor, said the move from the Elkton and Lisbon buildings was made last week, with some of the hauling being done on New Year's Day.

SHE SAID the shift was imperative because water pipes burst in the Elkton building and because of the difficulty in coordinating operations at three locations — the Elkton building, a storeroom classroom on W. Lincoln Way and the Sheltered Workshop for Retarded in the county office building on E. Washington St.

Construction of the $389,000 school began in December a year ago. Workmen are completing electrical work and painting while classes are in session.

The desks and chairs in use are on loan from the Beaver Local board of education. Beaver Local also owns the former retarded school at Elkton.

Construction costs left nothing for equipping the new building. Mrs. Martsolf said various organizations are offering help as they learn of the need. The only cafeteria equipment at present includes two portable roasters, a used refrigerator and a used electric stove.

The enrollment is 106 youngsters in eight classes. Another 40 are enrolled in the Sheltered Workship at Lisbon. When plans for the new school were prepared three years ago, they included space for the Sheltered Workshop. That feature had to be dropped because of construction costs, so the workshop will continue in the county building here.

CONSTRUCTION of the new school was delayed for approximately a year because of a dispute over the site. Originally, the county-owned Rogers farm on Route 7 north of Rogers was selected, but a change in the board of commissioners resulted in the switch to the County Home farm. Building costs mounted during the delay.

The commissioners and Mrs. Martsolf will go to Columbus Jan. 21 to request state help in equipping the school. They will meet with Kenneth M. Mahan, coordinator of construction programs for the Ohio Department of Mental Hygiene and Correction.

Robert Bycroft, for whom the school is named, was former county welfare director. He died Sept. 30, 1966, a few hours after suffering a heart attack in his office here.

Fourteen cases are on the list for Thursday and a like number for Friday. The schedule calls for the jury to report Monday to Judge Joel H. Sharp in Common Pleas Court.

Pollution

land picketed the Ohio Edison

Mrs. Mitchell pointed out that the community of 2,600 "is the aerial garbage dump for 82.9 tons of dust fall per square mile each month. This one coal-burning industry is polluting the air in parts of Ohio, West Virginia and Pennsylvania."

FOLLOWING the meetings and picketing, D.E. Wooldridge, general superintendent of production and transmission for Ohio Edison, met with the committee in September and promised to make changes at the Toronto plant. The changes, however, will not be completed until mid-1970. They will include new and higher stacks.

The Mayor's Committee met again Tuesday night and will ask New Cumberland Council at tonight's meeting to draw up a resolution asking assistance in interstate abatement. This step is being taken to seek aide from federal agencies, it was explained.

The resolution first must be drawn by Council, then endorsed by the governor of West Virginia and the commissioners of West Virginia Air Pollution before being presented to the U.S. Department of Health Education and Welfare.

The committee also will obtain another speaker on air pollution for its next public meeting in April.

Witness Clears Driver And Then Faces Affidavit

It was a case of "out of the frying pan into the fire" in a Municipal Court trial Tuesday for a 35-year-old East Liverpool man charged with three traffic violations.

The testimony of a defense witness got the driver out of the frying pan, but the witness then wound up in the fire.

Alfred I. Higgins of 770 Dresden Ave. was charged with driving while under the influence of alcohol, failure to stop after an accident and driving after his operator's license had been suspended. The charges followed a mishap Dec. 5 in which an auto hit a utility pole on St. Clair Ave. near Walnut St., but the driver was not at the scene when police arrived.

Barbara Hager of Vernia St., a friend of Higgins, testified that she was the driver. That absolved Higgins. All three traffic counts were dismissed, but he was fined on a public intoxication charge.

Then Patrolman James Buckley, the investigating officer, filed an affidavit against the Hager woman accusing her of leaving the scene of an accident. The court set her hearing Monday and fixed bond at $200.

HARRISBURG — Two Beaver County men have been named chairmen of committees in the Pennsylvania House.

Introduced In Ohio Assembly

Bills Urge Death Penalty Ban, Voting Age Of 18

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Sen. Oliver Ocasek D - 27 Summit, who Tuesday introduced resolutions to abolish the death penalty and to lower the voting age, is hoping his perennial proposals will receive legislative approval this time around.

Ocasek predicted another "uphill battle" in trying to do away with capital punishment.

"But 10 years ago when I put in annual sessions everyone said I was crazy and that it would never pass," Ocasek said, adding that it was finally successful last season.

Both of Ocasek's resolutions will have their fifth go - round this session. Both propose constitutional amendments which would have to be put to a vote of the people.

Similar measures in previous sessions have had little success, with most being bottled up in committees. Last session the Senate Judiciary Committee finally reported out Ocasek's capital punishment measure but it never came up for a vote in the Senate.

Ocasek said the lawyers on the Judiciary Committee do not like his resolution because lawyers like to get death penalty convictions. But he added:

"No one has been executed in Ohio since March 1963. This indicates to me that the (state) administration believes the death penalty is basically wrong."

There are now 28 men on death row at the Ohio Penitentiary.

Ocasek said he is against the death penalty because he feels those who commit murder are "criminally insane or mentally deranged and should be treated in a mental hospital."

He said if the measure passed he would favor taking the power of pardon for murder conviction away from the governor and giving it to the court that pronounced sentence.

Ocasek's second resolution would lower the voting age from 21 to 19 and would make 21 the legal age for holding either appointive or elective office in Ohio.

The first resolution to lower the voting age to 19 was introduced Monday. Similar resolutions are expected to be introduced in the House.

Sens. Douglas Applegate D-30 Steubenville and William B. Nye D-28 Summit co-sponsored the voting age resolution.

Ocasek, one of the busiest legislators on the second day of the 108th General Assembly, also co-sponsored another measure that would increase the penalty for a person convicted of medical quackery.

The bill provides that no person shall sell or administer drugs, substances or treatments represented as a preventive treatment or cure for disease or physical defect with intent to defraud.

The bill does not apply to bonafide testing of preventives or treatments, prescriptions of harmless substances for psychological benefits or treatment by prayer alone.

The bill would raise the maximum penalty for a first offense to a fine up to $1,000 or a year in prison, or both. The present maximum penalty is a $500 fine and 20 days in jail.

In the House, Speaker Charles F. Kurfess R-4 Wood urged members "to get their bills in . . . so we can have a productive session. The time to start on that is now."

The House, far behind the Senate, approved several housekeeping resolutions, including establishing auto mileage rates for representatives and committee room assignments.

The House is still one member short, having to name a replacement for the late Rep. Robert G. Jones R-62 Columbus, who died of injuries suffered in an auto accident here last November.

Jacob A. Shawan, former Franklin County Commissioner and former state representative, is reportedly in line to succeed Jones, but apparently there is some question whether Shawan is a legal resident in the 62nd District in Columbus.

'New Authority' Urged On Ohio Pension Funds

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A legislative committee said Tuesday that local governments should be given "new and expanded authority" to tap new sources of revenue so cities owing the Police and Firemen's Pension Fund could pay off their debts.

The Legislative Service Commission committee studying the funding of the pension fund stressed that such new revenue would be used to meet their "total financial needs."

Cities owe an estimated $413 million in accrued liability to the statewide fund created by the 1965 legislature. Some cities have no debts, but others have huge debts because their pension funds were not actuarily sound when turned over to the state.

On Monday a committee member, Sen. John H. Weeks R - 25 Cuyahoga, introduced a bill in the Senate which he said would provide the increased revenue to help cities pay off their debts.

His bill would allow city councils to adopt a maximum 2 per cent city income tax without a vote of the people. The present limit is 1 per cent.

The committee, appointed by the last legislature, made six other recommendations to the 108th General Assembly which convened Monday:

—That the funding of the pensions be continued on an actuarially sound basis (100 per cent).

—That the final responsibility for the payment of any unpaid portions of the accrued debt remain with the local governments.

—That no further delays or changes be made in the present schedule of payments on the accrued debt.

Young Driver Cited In Mishap At Lisbon

LISBON — Police said a 1961 sedan driven by Donald A. Adams, 16, of Lisbon RD 5, struck the rear of a stopped car operated by William E. Moore, 17, of Lisbon RD 2, at 8:15 p. m. Tuesday on W. Lincoln Way at the Beaver St. intersection.

Moore was eastbound on Lincoln Way, and had stopped for the Beaver St. light, police said. They estimated $75 damage to the rear of his car and $275 damage to the front end of the other car, owned by Thelma Adams. Young Adams was referred to Juvenile Court on a charge of failure to stop in an assured clear distance.

miles of 69,000 - volt line and numerous distribution conversions in the Wellsville - Hammondsville - Summitville area, at a cost of $629,000, will serve new customers and bolster service capacity.

Largest project in the division for 1969 is a new 138,000 - volt transmission substation and eight miles of new line of the same voltage which will benefit customers in Steubenville's West End.

New super-generating units, giant transmission lines and substations, modern distribution facilities and a variety of other highly efficient tools and equipment are included in the new year's forecast, according to Ohio Power's executive vice president, A. N. Prentice, of Canton.

"This marks the fourth consecutive year that our expansion program has exceeded $100 million," Prentice said, "and brings to more than a half-billion dollars the amount invested in the four-year period 1966-69. Never before in our long history have we been required to plan, design, build and finance a construction program of this magnitude."

Paul Shows Signs Of Homesickness

Little Paul McCraw of Mulberry St. is beginning to show signs of homesickness after spending more than a month in Children's Hospital, Pittsburgh, his mother reported today.

The 9-year-old youngster continues to undergo two treatments weekly on an artificial kidney machine while awaiting a kidney transplant that could prolong his life. The current hospital stay began Dec. 3.

Mrs. Erma McCraw said her son received another treatment on the kidney machine Monday. Physicians said his kidneys, attacked by a rare disease, virtually have ceased to function and only the machine's cleansing action has kept him alive.

Physicians have indicated he may be allowed to visit his home from Friday until Monday, returning in time for the next kidney machine treatment. But the visit will depend upon the weather and other factors at the time, including his condition.

Little Paul McCraw of Mulberry St. is beginning to show signs of homesickness after spending more than a month in Children's Hospital, Pittsburgh, his mother reported today.

The 9-year-old youngster continues to undergo two treatments weekly on an artificial kidney machine while awaiting a kidney transplant that could prolong his life. The current hospital stay began Dec. 3.

Mrs. Erma McCraw said her son received another treatment on the kidney machine Monday. Physicians said his kidneys, attacked by a rare disease, virtually have ceased to function and only the machine's cleansing action has kept him alive.

Physicians have indicated he may be allowed to visit his home from Friday until Monday, returning in time for the next kidney machine treatment. But the visit will depend upon the weather and other factors at the time, including his condition.

New Liberal Set To Head Czech Body

PRAGUE (AP) — Czechoslovakia's Communist leaders tried to ease the blow of Josef Smrkovsky's demotion Monday night by naming another liberal to replace him.

The party's 21-member presidium recommended unanimously that Petr Colotka be appointed chairman of the nation's new Federal Assembly. Smrkovsky, president of the old National Assembly until Czechoslovakia became a federation on Jan. 1, was named Colotka's deputy chairman.

Colotka, a deputy premier and until a month ago the nation's press chief, is generally regarded as a liberal. Ht is a Slovak, and both the Czech and Slovak branches of the Communist party have gone on record in favor of a Slovak holding the position to give an ethnic balance in the top official rank. Smrkovsky is a Czech, and with him in the post the division was 3-1 in favor of the Czechs.

Smrkovsky accepted the party's decision in advance and urged that the public also accept it.

Workers and students had threatened demonstrations and strikes unless he got the top assembly post, claiming his demotion would symbolize a final turning away from the reforms embarked on before the Soviet invasion last August. But Smrkovsky's demotion had been certain since Monday night, and there was no adverse public reaction Tuesday.

The presidium's announcement said Smrkovsky, considered by the public the most reform-minded member left in the party leadership, would remain in the "inner leadership of the party."

Shafer's Message Envisions Wide Range Of Possibilities

HARRISBURG (AP)—A wide-range of possibilities — from a brand new town to a modern school administration and overhaul of state government—were envisioned by Gov. Shafer Tuesday in his State of the Commonwealth Message to the General Assembly.

The politically divided legislature, which has more Democrats than Republicans, reacted to it along partisan lines. The GOP generally praised what the Republican governor had to say, but the Democrats weren't so sure—especially on how the program might be financed.

Shafer made no mention of what the total cost might be and at no time did he touch on what may turn out to be the most controversial issue of the 153rd Assembly—a state income tax.

Although Shafer said Pennsylvania is making "great progress" in his goal of economic growth, this was disputed by Rep. K. Leroy Irvis, D-Allegheny, majority leader in the house.

Senate minority leader Ernest P. Kline, D-Beaver, voiced the tone sounded by nearly all Democrats and some Republicans.

"He covered all the problems but the big ones—how to pay for it," said Kline.

The new House speaker, Herbert Fineman, D-Philadelphia, said there were several points in Shafer's message he didn't agree with.

Among GOP spokesmen, House minority leader Lee A. Donaldson R-Allegheny, said: "Many ideas advanced by the governor, while not new, could be implemented without additional cost to the state. Of course, for the money to finance some of these programs we will await his budget message."

Senate majority leader Stanley G. Stroup, R-Bedford, said the governor again has given the assembly a challenging program. "His emphasis on education and improvement of housing has my complete accord."

Airport Transit System Reports Daily Business

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Two months after it opened, the nation's first transit system link from a major airport to downtown is doing business to the tune of 4,000 passengers daily.

The 4,000 figure is the total arrivals and departures at Cleveland Hopkins International Airport though the Ceveland Transit System's new airport rail link.

CTS officials say the $18.6 million, 4.08-mile line is the only public rapid transit connection of its kind in the world.

Airport rapid trains leave every 10 minutes, offering a 20-minute ride for 35 cents. Taxis take about the same time, but cost $5 and limousine service costs $1.60.

Operators of airport limousine services report business dropped since the opening of the rapid transit extension, but they're still calculating the effects of bad weather and holidays. "It's going to hurt us though we know that," says one.

CTS opened the airpor run in November.

New Liberal Set To Head Czech Body

PRAGUE (AP) — Czechoslovakia's Communist leaders tried to ease the blow of Josef Smrkovsky's demotion Monday night by naming another liberal to replace him.

The party's 21-member presidium recommended unanimously that Petr Colotka be appointed chairman of the nation's new Federal Assembly. Smrkovsky, president of the old National Assembly until Czechoslovakia became a federation on Jan. 1, was named Colotka's deputy chairman.

Colotka, a deputy premier and until a month ago the nation's press chief, is generally regarded as a liberal. Ht is a Slovak, and both the Czech and Slovak branches of the Communist party have gone on record in favor of a Slovak holding the position to give an ethnic balance in the top official rank. Smrkovsky is a Czech, and with him in the post the division was 3-1 in favor of the Czechs.

Smrkovsky accepted the party's decision in advance and urged that the public also accept it.

Workers and students had threatened demonstrations and strikes unless he got the top assembly post, claiming his demotion would symbolize a final turning away from the reforms embarked on before the Soviet invasion last August. But Smrkovsky's demotion had been certain since Monday night, and there was no adverse public reaction Tuesday.

The presidium's announcement said Smrkovsky, considered by the public the most reform-minded member left in the party leadership, would remain in the "inner leadership of the party."

1968 Sets Record

Building Permits Total $3,416,036

New construction and remodeling in East Liverpool during 1968 totaled $3,416,430, topping by $662,394 the previous all-time record of $2,754,036 set in 1967.

Permits for six major jobs helped set the record. The six added up to $2,416,000 — or two-thirds of the year's total. A single permit also helped 1967 set a new record. It was the $2,225,000 authorization for the new high school and north elementary schools on Maine Blvd., issued in January of 1967.

THE 1968 projects bring to $23,481,572 the estimated dollar value of building projects in East Liverpool since the close of World War II in 1945. The permits exceeded the $2 million mark only in one other year. That was in 1954, when the total hit $2,118,653. The fourth biggest year for local construction was the $1,569,362 in 1953.

The 1967 record was set with the help of one other major project — a $130,000 permit issued just before the close of the year to the Ohio Power Co. for a new substation on the North Side.

The biggest 1968 permit called for a $1,738,000 expenditure for the high - rise apartment to provide housing for the elderly which is being erected in West End for the Columbiana Metropolitan Housing Authority. Launched last fall, the job is slated for completion this year.

Other major permits in 1968 were: $200,000 for the new Post Office building on Dresden Ave.; $180,000 for four four-unit apartments on St. Clair Ave.; $44,000 for a new East End business building and $254,000 for a new car wash operation, also in East End.

The 1968 total does not represent all the new construction work in the immediate East Liverpool area.

MILLIONS have been spent on new housing in the suburban areas immediately outside the corporate limits in a postwar migration to the adjoining townships that began more than 20 years ago.

Governmental projects are not included, as building permits are not required. For example, work was finished in mid-1968 on a $252,000 Ohio Highway Department project for an auto - pedestrian ramp over the Freeway to link together the two deadend sections of W. 9th St.

The highway department is slated to begin work this year on widening and resurfacing of Lisbon St. between W. 8th St. and the city limits, a $300,000 project that will not show in the building permit books.

Here's a monthly breakdown on the 1968 permits:

January, $211,400; February, $76,900; March, $43,470; April $283,175; May, $101,533; June, $267,200; July $7,650; August, $1,763,550; September, $75,575; October, $161,450; November, $3,550, and December, $4,330.

By contrast, the monthly totals for 1967 were: January, $2-302,959; February, $72,500; March, $13,218; April, $6,197; May, $22,760; June, $18,980; July, $45,378; August, $25,030; September, $15,750; October, $15,-980; November, $75,050, and December, $139,285.

Drapery, Sewing Classes Planned

LISBON — Classes in drapery construction and beginning sewing will be held in several locations in Columbiana County during February, March and April, according to Ann Riedel, county extension agent for home economics.

She said each course will consist of approximately four sessions.

Homemakers interested in either of the courses are asked to send their names and addresses, and preference of day or evening class, to Mrs. Riedel, 113 S. Market St., Lisbon. Definite locations, dates and times will be established on the basis of these enrollments, she said.

County Man Returned On Burglary Charges

LISBON — Harvey Hale, 19, formerly of Salem RD 5, was returned to Columbiana County Tuesday by Chief Deputy Sheriff Robert Beresford to await arrignment on a charge of burglary last summer at Crestview School. Hale is in the County Jail.

The Sheriff's department was unable to locate Hale last September when the Grand Jury indicted him. Beresford sent a warrant to Brooke County, W. Va., last week after learning the defendant was staying in Wellsburg. The Brooke Sheriff's Department arrested the youth Saturday night.

Hale waived extradition to Ohio at a hearing Monday in Wellsburg.

Meeting Is Reset

GEORGETOWN — Georgetown Council will meet next Monday at 3 p.m. This week's meeting was canceled due to the lack of a quorum.

Fire Truck Bids Due At Wellsville

Safety - Service Director Fred Baldasare was authorized to receive bids for a new fire truck by Wellsville Council at its meeting Tuesday night.

The legislation, approved under suspension of rules by all six members present, also authorizes the Board of Control to enter into a contract for the new apparatus.

Russell Keefer, Paul Todd, Glenn Mathess, Robert Taggart, Nunzio Lombardozzi and Jack Call cast the "yes" votes. James Brad Phillips was absent due to illness.

TWO MORE pieces of legislation were adopted under suspension of rules — a resolution accepting the $68,697 certified by the county Budget Commission and an ordinance providing temporary funds for various departments until appropriations are set up by the council.

Todd again proposed the cleaning and improvement of a city - owned building at 12th and Main Sts.

He pointed out that on a trip to Toronto he had learned through the mayor there that a building given to the municipality was being remodeled for city offices through funds received from fines.

Todd said Councilman Keefer, chairman of the property committee, plans to obtain an estimate on the cost of cleaning up the building.

Mayor William Daugherty's report for December showed a total of $1,114.20, including $330 for meter collections.

Lombardozzi reported that a request from Tom McGraw for a light on Boyce Ave. had been taken up in a caucus and turned over to the street and light committee.

During committee reports, Todd reminded that Wellsville's refuse now is being hauled to the East Liverpool landfill in Madison Township as per contract of an estimated $1,000 quarterly and said he would like to obtain figures to ascertain how much the rates need to be raised.

CALL informed Council that it was decided to keep the trailer ordinance in committee pending further study.

Cliff Baughman, representing the Senior Citizens, again asked for an explanation as to why Wellsville wasn't able to obtain a housing unit. He had raistd the same question at a regular meeting in December. At that time a meeting was to have been set up among the mayor, Senior Citizens and a councilman, but it did not materialize.

Daugherty asked, "Are you aware of the requirements for such a project?"

He offered to review the requirements with the Senior Citizens whenever it was suitable.

A complaint was registered by Howard Lucas of 10th St. against what he termed the "underhanded" manner in which Council passed the $5 tax on all motor vehicles — "holding meetings at such odd hours and so close together.

"Wayne Rose, president, cautioned Lucas about using the word "underhanded" and explained the meetings could not be held except 12 hours apart and were scheduled at different times so as to accommodate work schedules of the councilmen. He pointed out the times of special meetings had been carried in the newspaper and explained it was necessary to hold the meetings close together in order to certify the ordinance to the Ohio registrar of motor vehicles by the Jan. 5 deadline.

Lombardozzi explained that the complaints of Riverside Ave. residents about the city not being able to blacktop their newly - slagged street had resulted in Council deciding to adopt the tax so as to have more funds for street improvement programs. He emphasized that not one complaint had been registered during the two weeks the tax was under consideration.

Lucas also wanted to know why the city dump was closed—whether it was neglect or failure to keep it covered.

Rose pointed out it would take too long at the meeting to explain the reasons and requirtments of the state, but said if Lucas would talk to a councilman he would receive the information.

The invocation was given by Keefer and Lombardozzi served as clerk in the absence of Andrew Lynn.

In recognition of his many years service as city chemist, the family of the late Jesse Tarr will be sent a letter of condolence.

Auto Flattens Parking Sign

A skidding auto flattened a standard holding a parking limit sign as the driver swerved to avoid a collision with another car Tuesday at 6:49 p.m. on Pennsylvania Ave. 60 feet east of 1st Ave., police reported.

The 1959 four-door sedan driven by Gerald C. Greathouse, 32, of 460½ Oliver St. bent the standard parallel with the pavement and tore off a sign warning of a two-hour parking limit. The auto was undamaged.

Greathouse told police he was driving east about 20 miles an hour when a car stopped in front of him. He applied the brakes, but his car slid on icy pavement. Greathouse then turned his car to the right and it hit the curb and bent over the sign standard.

A collision at 1:57 p.m. Tuesday on Rubicon St., Beechwood, damaged a 1966 model car driven by William Chambers, 53, of 258 Drain St. and a 1961 model auto operated by Okey Parsons, 70, of 1060 Rubicon St.

Chambers was driving east on Rubicon St. and Parsons, headed west, was attempting a turn into the driveway at his home. officers said. The left front of each car was damaged.

1968 Sets Record

Building Permits Total $3,416,036

New construction and remodeling in East Liverpool during 1968 totaled $3,416,430, topping by $662,394 the previous all-time record of $2,754,036 set in 1967.

Permits for six major jobs helped set the record. The six added up to $2,416,000 — or two-thirds of the year's total. A single permit also helped 1967 set a new record. It was the $2,225,000 authorization for the new high school and north elementary schools on Maine Blvd., issued in January of 1967.

THE 1968 projects bring to $23,481,572 the estimated dollar value of building projects in East Liverpool since the close of World War II in 1945. The permits exceeded the $2 million mark only in one other year. That was in 1954, when the total hit $2,118,653. The fourth biggest year for local construction was the $1,569,362 in 1953.

The 1967 record was set with the help of one other major project — a $130,000 permit issued just before the close of the year to the Ohio Power Co. for a new substation on the North Side.

The biggest 1968 permit called for a $1,738,000 expenditure for the high - rise apartment to provide housing for the elderly which is being erected in West End for the Columbiana Metropolitan Housing Authority. Launched last fall, the job is slated for completion this year.

Other major permits in 1968 were: $200,000 for the new Post Office building on Dresden Ave.; $180,000 for four four-unit apartments on St. Clair Ave.; $44,000 for a new East End business building and $254,000 for a new car wash operation, also in East End.

The 1968 total does not represent all the new construction work in the immediate East Liverpool area.

MILLIONS have been spent on new housing in the suburban areas immediately outside the corporate limits in a postwar migration to the adjoining townships that began more than 20 years ago.

Governmental projects are not included, as building permits are not required. For example, work was finished in mid-1968 on a $252,000 Ohio Highway Department project for an auto - pedestrian ramp over the Freeway to link together the two deadend sections of W. 9th St.

The highway department is slated to begin work this year on widening and resurfacing of Lisbon St. between W. 8th St. and the city limits, a $300,000 project that will not show in the building permit books.

Here's a monthly breakdown on the 1968 permits:

January, $211,400; February, $76,900; March, $43,470; April $283,175; May, $101,533; June, $267,200; July $7,650; August, $1,763,550; September, $75,575; October, $161,450; November, $3,550, and December, $4,330.

By contrast, the monthly totals for 1967 were: January, $2-302,959; February, $72,500; March, $13,218; April, $6,197; May, $22,760; June, $18,980; July, $45,378; August, $25,030; September, $15,750; October, $15,-930; November, $75,050, and December, $139,285.

Drapery, Sewing Classes Planned

LISBON — Classes in drapery construction and beginning sewing will be held in several locations in Columbiana County during February, March and April, according to Ann Riedel, county extension agent for home economics.

She said each course will consist of approximately four sessions.

Homemakers interested in either of the courses are asked to send their names and addresses, and preference of day or evening class, to Mrs. Riedel, 113 S. Market St., Lisbon. Definite locations, dates and times will be established on the basis of these enrollments, she said.

ANN LANDERS

College Student Replies

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: Please give me a chance to reply to "Concerned Dad" — the father who complained that today's colleges and universities are nothing more than open brothels supported by taxpayess.

I could take his arguments apart sentence by sentence, but since space is limited I'll stick to the central issues.

Dear Concerned Dad: You were correct when you said colleges aren't what they used to be. In some ways, perhaps, they are not as good, but in more ways they're better. It's harder to get into a good college than it was in your day, and harder to STAY in.

You seem worried that your son will spend all his time making out, carrying signs with dirty words, and setting fire to the main buildings. Why? The percentage of kids who do this is small, and usually they don't last long.

The overwhelming majority of college students study longer and harder than you did. They must in order to survive. There is more to learn and the competition is deadly. The kid who can't make it is booted out to make room for someone who can.

You sound as if all schools are like Columbia and Berkeley. I'm not knocking these universities — they are great. But the loudmouths on those campuses are not representative of the student body.

As far as sex is concerned, kids take to college the morals they learned at home. If you don't trust your son alone with a girl, send him to a nursery, not to college. — North Carolina State U.

Thanks, Ann, for giving us a chance to be heard J N.C.S.U.

Dear N.C.: You're welcome. And now a word from a Harvard dean:

Dear Dad: Colleges are not reform schools. If your son doesn't know how to stay sober, drive a car safely and respect girls, I suggest you bring him back home.

Colleges are supposed to educate, not serve as custodial institutions for students. More to the point, if you and your wife failed to do your job as parents, don't expect us to salvage him. Sir John Wolfenden said, "Schoolmasters and parents exist to be grown out of." Harvard Dean, Cambridge, Mass.

Dear Dean: Amen, brother, amen.

Down, Girl

Dear Ann: We waited eight weeks for good seats to a great musical — eighth row, center. Two minutes before the curtain went up, a lady seated herself directly in front of me. She had a two-story hair do which stood above her empty skull.

What would you have done, Ann Landers? — Judge G.L.Q.

Dear Judge: I would have tapped the lady on the shoulder, informed her that her hairdo was obstructing my view, and ask that she move her head about six inches to the side.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-adressed envelope.

Court Visits Slated

LISBON — April 8 and Oct. 7 are the 1969 dates for the Seventh District Court of Appeals to sit at the Columbiana County Courthouse. Both dates are Tuesdays. The Appellate Court convenes at 10 a.m.

Weirton Man New Head Of Hancock School Board

NEW CUMBERLAND — Fred Barnabei of Weirton was elected president during Monday night's meeting of the Hancock County board of education and James Jordan, Chester attorney, was seated as a new member.

Barnabei has served on the board since May 1966 and succeeds John Paul Jones of New Cumberland as president. Jordan succeeds Dr. John Brand, also of Chester.

The board adopted the calendar of meetings for the year, with sessions set the second and fourth Mondays of each month.

The board approved the low bid of $3,328 submitted by Twin State Motors, Inc., of Steubenville for a 1969 International truck.

Other bids were submitted by LaPosta Auto Sales and Cattrell Motor Co., both of Weirton.

The truck will be used to transport work crews from one job site to another. At present, the department is using a 1952 war surplus vehicle.

In other action, the board accepted the resignation of one teacher and four non-teaching personnel. The teacher is Sandra Palcic of Cove School, who is leaving the area. Non-teaching personnel included Charles Arnott, television technician; Karen Allen, teacher's aide at New Cumberland Elementary; Nora Lyons, instructor's aide, and George Panagiotou, an electrician.

Seven non-teaching personnel were hired, with four listed as extra help only. Hired were Dino Cavalet, skilled maintenance vocational building; Richard Morgan, electrician maintenance; Vickie Mostowski, teacher aide New Cumberland elementary, and extra help Thelma Connell, teacher aide Broadview; Jean Cornell and Jean Weaver teacher aides Chester primary and Chester intermediate, and Lucille Robinson, instructor aide at Liberty.

Dr. Vernon Wyland, school superintendent, informed the board of a proposal, presently under study, calling for the use of data processing technique to be used in updating the present payroll procedure for non-teaching personnel.

Dr. Wyland said that the advantages in data processing would include checks fully calculated and prepared monthly with all earnings and deductions recorded: completely prepared, balanced and itemized quarterly text and social security reports; completely prepared and balanced W-2 forms available at the end of the calendar year.

The superintendent said the administration has contacted three firms with data processing equipment relative to the possibility of a service agreement.

Man To Face Grand Jurors For Shooting

LISBON — James T. Criss, 54, of 220 Lee Ave. pleaded not guilty to a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon Tuesday afternoon in Columbiana County Southwest Court and was bound over to the Grand Jury by Judge J. L. MacDonald.

At the request of Duane Yeagley of Salem, assistant prosecuting attorney, Judge MacDonald increased the bond from $5,000 to $10,000 and the defendant was returned to the County Jail.

He has been held since Monday morning when Glendon (Glenn) Ikirt, 49, of Pleasant Heights, Lisbon, told authorities Criss jumped into the rear of his station wagon at the fairgrounds speed barn and began firing a pistol.

Ikirt was treated at Salem City Hospital for a bullet wound of the right forearm and another in the left shoulder blade area.

The shooting occurred about 6:15 a.m. Ikirt said he had finished feeding his riding horse at the fairgrounds barn and was leaving for work at the Deming Co. in Salem when the attack occurred. He said he had never had any trouble with Criss.

Chief of Police Leon T. Zahrndt, who filed the affidavit, said he questioned Criss but could learn no reason for the attack.

Robert Hartford of East Palestine, counsel for the defendant, argued against the state's request for higher bond yesterday. He said it is his opinion Criss does not know what happened and the defendant should receive medical or psychiatric help.

He indicated he will attempt to have the bond reduced once the transcript is filed in Common Pleas Court, then have Criss taken to a Veterans Administration hospital.

ANN LANDERS

College Student Replies

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: Please give me a chance to reply to "Concerned Dad" — the father who complained that today's colleges and universities are nothing more than open brothels supported by taxpayess.

I could take his arguments apart sentence by sentence, but since space is limited I'll stick to the central issues.

Dear Concerned Dad: You were correct when you said colleges aren't what they used to be. In some ways, perhaps, they are not as good, but in more ways they're better. It's harder to get into a good college than it was in your day, and harder to STAY in.

You seem worried that your son will spend all his time making out, carrying signs with dirty words, and setting fire to the main buildings. Why? The percentage of kids who do this is small, and usually they don't last long.

The overwhelming majority of college students study longer and harder than you did. They must in order to survive. There is more to learn and the competition is deadly. The kid who can't make it is booted out to make room for someone who can.

You sound as if all schools are like Columbia and Berkeley. I'm not knocking these universities — they are great. But the loudmouths on those campuses are not representative of the student body.

As far as sex is concerned, kids take to college the morals they learned at home. If you don't trust your son alone with a girl, send him to a nursery, not to college. — North Carolina State U.

Thanks, Ann, for giving us a chance to be heard J N.C.S.U.

Dear N.C.: You're welcome. And now a word from a Harvard dean:

Dear Dad: Colleges are not reform schools. If your son doesn't know how to stay sober, drive a car safely and respect girls, I suggest you bring him back home.

Colleges are supposed to educate, not serve as custodial institutions for students. More to the point, if you and your wife failed to do your job as parents, don't expect us to salvage him. Sir John Wolfenden said, "Schoolmasters and parents exist to be grown out of." Harvard Dean, Cambridge, Mass.

Dear Dean: Amen, brother, amen.

Down, Girl

Dear Ann: We waited eight weeks for good seats to a great musical — eighth row, center. Two minutes before the curtain went up, a lady seated herself directly in front of me. She had a two-story hair do which stood above her empty skull.

What would you have done, Ann Landers? — Judge G.L.Q.

Dear Judge: I would have tapped the lady on the shoulder, informed her that her hairdo was obstructing my view, and ask that she move her head about six inches to the side.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-adressed envelope.

Barnabei has served on the board since May 1966 and succeeds John Paul Jones of New Cumberland as president. Jordan succeeds Dr. John Brand, also of Chester.

The board adopted the calendar of meetings for the year, with sessions set the second and fourth Mondays of each month.

The board approved the low bid of $3,328 submitted by Twin State Motors, Inc., of Steubenville for a 1969 International truck.

Other bids were submitted by LaPosta Auto Sales and Cattrell Motor Co., both of Weirton.

The truck will be used to transport work crews from one job site to another. At present, the department is using a 1952 war surplus vehicle.

In other action, the board accepted the resignation of one teacher and four non-teaching personnel. The teacher is Sandra Palcic of Cove School, who is leaving the area. Non-teaching personnel included Charles Arnott, television technician; Karen Allen, teacher's aide at New Cumberland Elementary; Nora Lyons, instructor's aide, and George Panagiotou, an electrician.

Seven non-teaching personnel were hired, with four listed as extra help only. Dr. Vernon Wyland, school superintendent, informed the board of a proposal, presently under study, calling for the use of data processing technique to be used in updating the present payroll procedure for non-teaching personnel.

Dr. Wyland said that the advantages in data processing would include checks fully calculated and prepared monthly with all earnings and deductions recorded: completely prepared, balanced and itemized quarterly text and social security reports; completely prepared and balanced W-2 forms available at the end of the calendar year.

The superintendent said the administration has contacted three firms with data processing equipment relative to the possibility of a service agreement.

Man To Face Grand Jurors For Shooting

LISBON — James T. Criss, 54, of 220 Lee Ave. pleaded not guilty to a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon Tuesday afternoon in Columbiana County Southwest Court and was bound over to the Grand Jury by Judge J. L. MacDonald.

At the request of Duane Yeagley of Salem, assistant prosecuting attorney, Judge MacDonald increased the bond from $5,000 to $10,000 and the defendant was returned to the County Jail.

He has been held since Monday morning when Glendon (Glenn) Ikirt, 49, of Pleasant Heights, Lisbon, told authorities Criss jumped into the rear of his station wagon at the fairgrounds speed barn and began firing a pistol.

Ikirt was treated at Salem City Hospital for a bullet wound of the right forearm and another in the left shoulder blade area.

Robert Hartford of East Palestine, counsel for the defendant, argued against the state's request for higher bond yesterday. He said it is his opinion Criss does not know what happened and the defendant should receive medical or psychiatric help.

He indicated he will attempt to have the bond reduced once the transcript is filed in Common Pleas Court, then have Criss taken to a Veterans Administration hospital.

Two West Virginia U. soccer players have been named to the 1968 All-America soccer team announced by the National Soccer Coaches Association.

Senior Walt Nistorenko was chosen for the second team at left inside. Honorable mention honors went to junior Pat Sullivan, a right fullback on the Mountaineer squad which compiled a 8-1-1 record and participated in NCAA regional play before dropping a 3-2 decision to St. Louis University.

Nistorenko and Sullivan, along with senior Len Forslund, were also named to the all-south soccer team.

BEAVER LOCAL'S Bill Barnhart scored 4 points in his only varsity appearance for the Youngstown State basketball team this season. Barnhart is one of the mainstays of the Penguin JV squad.

GREG GAMBLE, another Beaver Local grad, played on the soccer team this year at Warren Wilson College in Swannanoa, N. C. The team posted a 7-1-1 mark. Gamble, a senior is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard R. Gamble of RD 2, E. Liverpool.

Press Rattles Bobcats

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

Midland won its second straight Section 6 game, a surprisingly easy victory over Beaver, 80-67 on the Bobcats' court Tuesday night.

The Leopards zone press broke open a close game in the third period. With the score 36-34, the Leopards scored three baskets in about 15 seconds off the press, and ran off nine points in a row before Beaver could recover.

Howard (Cap) Leak, who hit well from the outside in addition to getting some baskets off the press, and big George Green, who moved well underneath, sharing scoring honors with 21 points each. Greg (Chico) Vanlier added 17 and Frank Johnson 10.

John Skorupan, who sparked a second - period rally by hitting five straight shots, led the losers with 21. Bob Swartz had 12 and Jim King 10.

"Our press disrupted their patterns" said winning coach Ed Olkowski of the Leopards' work in the third period. In the second period Skorupan had been hitting on jumpers from the foul line, but in the third quarter Beaver could not set up an offense. Olkowski noted that the Leopards made plenty of mistakes, and pointed to six turnovers in the second period and 17 for the game. Beaver made 15, 10 in the second half.

Midland had a 46 per cent to 38 per cent shooting edge, and controlled the boards 49-44. Beaver shot an excellent 86 per cent at the foul line.

Midland never trailed, and jumped off to an 11-5 lead. This was widened to 26-16 midway in the second period, before Skorupan started hitting. The halftime margin was only 31-30, but Beaver could never move ahead, and once Midland's press started working, there was little hope for Dave McIsaacs' team. The score was 54-46 late in the third period when Midland went on a 17-2 tear to open up its biggest lead of the game. Green, who had been on the bench the third period with foul trouble, got 14 Midland points in a row in the fourth period.

Midland became sloppy in the final stages, allowing Beaver to cut into the lead. Midland is now 7-3, Beaver 4-5.

Green led the Leopards with 12 rebounds and Greg Vanlier added 11. Skorupan took game honors with 14.

The Midland JVs of Nick Aloi dropped their first after seven wins, 42-39. The losers trailed 31-20 going into the final stanza and rallied to tie the score at 36, but couldn't quite pull the game out. Walt Moore, who hit five straight fouls in the last period, sank a pair to break the tie with 1:45 to go and the Bobcat JVs stayed ahead. Midland had led only at 7-5. The Beaver JVs are now 6-3.

Tom Vanlier had 19 for the losers and he and Jerry Walker grabbed 8 rebounds each. Dave Johns paced the winners with 18, while Moore added 10. Jon Bentley snagged 12 rebounds. Midland had a 17-12 edge in field goals, but Beaver hit 18 of 31 fouls to 5 of 10 by the visitors.

Two West Virginia U. soccer players have been named to the 1968 All-America soccer team announced by the National Soccer Coaches Association.

Senior Walt Nistorenko was chosen for the second team at left inside. Honorable mention honors went to junior Pat Sullivan, a right fullback on the Mountaineer squad which compiled a 8-1-1 record and participated in NCAA regional play before dropping a 3-2 decision to St. Louis University.

Nistorenko and Sullivan, along with senior Len Forslund, were also named to the all-south soccer team.

BEAVER LOCAL'S Bill Barnhart scored 4 points in his only varsity appearance for the Youngstown State basketball team this season. Barnhart is one of the mainstays of the Penguin JV squad.

GREG GAMBLE, another Beaver Local grad, played on the soccer team this year at Warren Wilson College in Swannanoa, N. C. The team posted a 7-1-1 mark. Gamble, a senior is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard R. Gamble of RD 2, E. Liverpool.

THIS WEEK'S Sporting News features an hilarious solumn by Joe Falls of the Detroit News. The column, dealing with improbable happenings of 1969, is itself worth the price of the paper.

LOS ANGELES writers are promoting Vince Scully for the post of commissioner of baseball. If Scully could do the job as well as he does the broadcasts of the Dodger games, he'd be a fine choice.

DON CLENDENON, now with the Montreal Expos, showed the most improvement in hitting from 1967 to 1968 of any Pirate regular. "Clink" was the only Buc to raise his average.

FORMER Cleveland standout Early Wynn is eligible for the Hall of Fame this year. Stan Musial is also eligible and is expected to be the first choice.

Press Rattles Bobcats

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

Midland won its second straight Section 6 game, a surprisingly easy victory over Beaver, 80-67 on the Bobcats' court Tuesday night.

The Leopards zone press broke open a close game in the third period. With the score 36-34, the Leopards scored three baskets in about 15 seconds off the press, and ran off nine points in a row before Beaver could recover.

Howard (Cap) Leak, who hit well from the outside in addition to getting some baskets off the press, and big George Green, who moved well underneath, sharing scoring honors with 21 points each. Greg (Chico) Vanlier added 17 and Frank Johnson 10.

John Skorupan, who sparked a second - period rally by hitting five straight shots, led the losers with 21. Bob Swartz had 12 and Jim King 10.

"Our press disrupted their patterns" said winning coach Ed Olkowski of the Leopards' work in the third period. In the second period Skorupan had been hitting on jumpers from the foul line, but in the third quarter Beaver could not set up an offense. Olkowski noted that the Leopards made plenty of mistakes, and pointed to six turnovers in the second period and 17 for the game. Beaver made 15, 10 in the second half.

Midland had a 46 per cent to 38 per cent shooting edge, and controlled the boards 49-44. Beaver shot an excellent 86 per cent at the foul line.

Midland never trailed, and jumped off to an 11-5 lead. This was widened to 26-16 midway in the second period, before Skorupan started hitting. The halftime margin was only 31-30, but Beaver could never move ahead, and once Midland's press started working, there was little hope for Dave McIsaacs' team. The score was 54-46 late in the third period when Midland went on a 17-2 tear to open up its biggest lead of the game. Green, who had been on the bench the third period with foul trouble, got 14 Midland points in a row in the fourth period.

Midland became sloppy in the final stages, allowing Beaver to cut into the lead. Midland is now 7-3, Beaver 4-5.

Green led the Leopards with 12 rebounds and Greg Vanlier added 11. Skorupan took game honors with 14.

The Midland JVs of Nick Aloi dropped their first after seven wins, 42-39. The losers trailed 31-20 going into the final stanza and rallied to tie the score at 36, but couldn't quite pull the game out. Walt Moore, who hit five straight fouls in the last period, sank a pair to break the tie with 1:45 to go and the Bobcat JVs stayed ahead. Midland had led only at 7-5. The Beaver JVs are now 6-3.

Tom Vanlier had 19 for the losers and he and Jerry Walker grabbed 8 rebounds each. Dave Johns paced the winners with 18, while Moore added 10. Jon Bentley snagged 12 rebounds. Midland had a 17-12 edge in field goals, but Beaver hit 18 of 31 fouls to 5 of 10 by the visitors.

Purdue Stops Illinois

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Illinois took its 10-game winning streak to Lafayeete, Ind. . . . and went down before the Mount.

Rick Mount, Purdue's slick shotmaker, exploded for 37 points Tuesday night as the Boilermakers dropped the nationally fourth-ranked Illini from the dwindling unbeaten ranks 98-84.

Illinois' first setback left only three major college teams with perfect records . . . top-ranked UCLA, No. 3 Santa Clara and No. 10 New Mexico State.

Once-beaten, sixth-ranked Davidson, only other Top Ten team in action Tuesday night, pulled away in the second half and trimmed St. Joseph's, Pa., 83-69 at Charlotte, N.C. Mike Maloy and Jerry Kroll divided 40 points in leading the Wildcats to their ninth victory.

Sophomore Ken Durett's 25 points paced 11th ranked LaSalle to a 103-84 victory over Creighton and Temple blasted Pennsylvania 107-83 behind Joe Cromer's 35-point binge in a doubleheader at Philadelphia's Palestra.

Marquette, No. 20 in the latest Associated Press poll, squeezed past Chicago Loyola 65-64, Bradley nipped Memphis State 68-67 and Providence downed St. Bonaventure 70-59 in other top games.

Mount, the Big Ten Conference's top scorer last season, shot 16 for 24 from the field and combined with soph George Faerber for 11 straight Purdue points in a second half rally that floored the Illini.

Faerber and 7-foot Chuck Bavis shut out Greg Jackson, Illinois' 6-foot-8 center, who managed just two points on a pair of free throws.

Davidson made up an early seven-point deficit, grabbed a 32-30 halftime edge on a basket by Mualoy and then wrecked St. Joseph's with a 61 - point second half burst. Mike Hauer topped the losers with 28 points.

Trailing 61-60 with 12:50 to play, LaSalle ran off nine straight points and breezed to its 10th triumph in 11 games. The Explorers' Bernie Williams scored 22 points to reach the 1,000 career mark. The Bluejays got 23 apiece from Bob Portman and Wally Anderzunas.

Cromer hit 14 of 22 shots from the floor and seven of seven from the foul line as Temple, 7-4, raced past the Quakers with a 56-point second half surge.

Marquette blew a 10-point lead in the last four minutes at Milwaukee before sophomore Dean Meminger's 15-foot jump shot with three seconds to play gave the Warriors their ninth victory against two setbacks. Meminger scored Marquette's last four points for a game-high total of 26.

Bobby Hull, Howe, Orr Unanimous Star Picks

NEW YORK (AP) — Chicago's Bobby Hull and Detroit's Gordie Howe, 1-2 in the National Hockey League scoring race, and super defenseman Bobby Orr of Boston were unanimous choices among 24 standouts selected today for the NHL's first East-West All-Star Game.

Hockey writers in the 12 NHL cities selected 12 players in each division for the 22nd annual All-Star classic, to be played in Montreal Jan. 21. Stars from the East Division will oppose standouts from the expansion West Division for the first time. The old All-Star format matched the defending Stanley Cup champions against stars from the other clubs in the league.

St. Louis Coach Scotty Bowman, the West pilot, and former Montreal Coach Toe Blake, who will direct the East squad, each will name seven more players later in the week, completing the 19-man All-Star squads.

Colts Favored By 18 In Super Bowl Game

By ORLO ROBERTSON

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — The oddsmakers say the Baltimore Colts are an 18-point better football team than the New York Jets. But you never would guess it from talking with Weeb Ewbank. Neither would you, for that matter, after listening to Don Shula.

The two head coaches, Ewbank of the American League champion Jets and Shula of the Natinal League's kingpin Colts, were loud in praise of each other's troops today as they talked of pro football's Super Bowl in Miami's nearby Orange Bowl Sunday.

"We have come a long way since the start of the season," said Ewbank as he talked of the chance of an AFL team coming out on top in this third clash between the champions of the two leagues. The NFL, represented by the Green Bay Packers, won the first two handily against Kansas City in 1967 and Oakland last year.

"This team, as it now stands, has poise and depth in both offense and defense and is proud just to be in the Super Bowl," Ewbank said.

"Joe Namath has to be one of the greatest quarterbacks and he is learning every game. I would call Matt Snell (fullback) a complete player while Emerson Boozer is just ready to go. He has reached the peak he obtained early in 1967 before he injured his right knee.

About the time Ewbank was heaping praise on his team, Shula was getting in a good word for the Jets at the Colts' headquarters a half-mile away.

"The Jets have a great front four in their defensive line," said Shula, a one-time player for Ewbank. He was referring to Gerry Philbin, Verlon Biggs, Paul Rochester and John Elliott.

Shula, who also had praise for the Jets' linebackers, likened the New York front wall to the great Packers, defense of recent years. "All are quick and agile," he added. "The Jets always have been strong offensively. Now they have added a great defense.

"We don't see many of the types of defense used by the Jets in our league. Yes, we came down here expecting a real football game and I can't see us an 18-point favorite."

Ewbank compared favorably the Colts with Green Bay's great championship teams.

"They've had a fine football team for three years," he said. "And this year they've had the determination not to let the setbacks of the previous two years distract them.

"But I would add, I think we are the best AFL team to play in the Super Bowl. I wouldn't have said it earlier in the season but I'll say it now.

Purdue Stops Illinois

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Illinois took its 10-game winning streak to Lafayeete, Ind. . . . and went down before the Mount.

Rick Mount, Purdue's slick shotmaker, exploded for 37 points Tuesday night as the Boilermakers dropped the nationally fourth-ranked Illini from the dwindling unbeaten ranks 98-84.

Illinois' first setback left only three major college teams with perfect records . . . top-ranked UCLA, No. 3 Santa Clara and No. 10 New Mexico State.

Once-beaten, sixth-ranked Davidson, only other Top Ten team in action Tuesday night, pulled away in the second half and trimmed St. Joseph's, Pa., 83-69 at Charlotte, N.C. Mike Maloy and Jerry Kroll divided 40 points in leading the Wildcats to their ninth victory.

Sophomore Ken Durett's 25 points paced 11th ranked LaSalle to a 103-84 victory over Creighton and Temple blasted Pennsylvania 107-83 behind Joe Cromer's 35-point binge in a doubleheader at Philadelphia's Palestra.

Marquette, No. 20 in the latest Associated Press poll, squeezed past Chicago Loyola 65-64, Bradley nipped Memphis State 68-67 and Providence downed St. Bonaventure 70-59 in other top games.

Mount, the Big Ten Conference's top scorer last season, shot 16 for 24 from the field and combined with soph George Faerber for 11 straight Purdue points in a second half rally that floored the Illini.

Faerber and 7-foot Chuck Bavis shut out Greg Jackson, Illinois' 6-foot-8 center, who managed just two points on a pair of free throws.

Davidson made up an early seven-point deficit, grabbed a 32-30 halftime edge on a basket by Mualoy and then wrecked St. Joseph's with a 61 - point second half burst. Mike Hauer topped the losers with 28 points.

Trailing 61-60 with 12:50 to play, LaSalle ran off nine straight points and breezed to its 10th triumph in 11 games. The Explorers' Bernie Williams scored 22 points to reach the 1,000 career mark. The Bluejays got 23 apiece from Bob Portman and Wally Anderzunas.

Cromer hit 14 of 22 shots from the floor and seven of seven from the foul line as Temple, 7-4, raced past the Quakers with a 56-point second half surge.

Marquette blew a 10-point lead in the last four minutes at Milwaukee before sophomore Dean Meminger's 15-foot jump shot with three seconds to play gave the Warriors their ninth victory against two setbacks. Meminger scored Marquette's last four points for a game-high total of 26.

Bobby Hull, Howe, Orr Unanimous Star Picks

NEW YORK (AP) — Chicago's Bobby Hull and Detroit's Gordie Howe, 1-2 in the National Hockey League scoring race, and super defenseman Bobby Orr of Boston were unanimous choices among 24 standouts selected today for the NHL's first East-West All-Star Game.

Hockey writers in the 12 NHL cities selected 12 players in each division for the 22nd annual All-Star classic, to be played in Montreal Jan. 21. Stars from the East Division will oppose standouts from the expansion West Division for the first time. The old All-Star format matched the defending Stanley Cup champions against stars from the other clubs in the league.

St. Louis Coach Scotty Bowman, the West pilot, and former Montreal Coach Toe Blake, who will direct the East squad, each will name seven more players later in the week, completing the 19-man All-Star squads.

Other East team selections are goalie Gerry Cheevers of Boston, defensemen J.C. Tremblay of Montreal and Pat Stapleton of Chicago, right winger Bob Nevin of New York, center Jean Beliveau of Montreal and left winger Frank Mahovlich of Detroit.

Colts Favored By 18 In Super Bowl Game

By ORLO ROBERTSON

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — The oddsmakers say the Baltimore Colts are an 18-point better football team than the New York Jets. But you never would guess it from talking with Weeb Ewbank. Neither would you, for that matter, after listening to Don Shula.

The two head coaches, Ewbank of the American League champion Jets and Shula of the Natinal League's kingpin Colts, were loud in praise of each other's troops today as they talked of pro football's Super Bowl in Miami's nearby Orange Bowl Sunday.

"We have come a long way since the start of the season," said Ewbank as he talked of the chance of an AFL team coming out on top in this third clash between the champions of the two leagues. The NFL, represented by the Green Bay Packers, won the first two handily against Kansas City in 1967 and Oakland last year.

"This team, as it now stands, has poise and depth in both offense and defense and is proud just to be in the Super Bowl," Ewbank said.

"Joe Namath has to be one of the greatest quarterbacks and he is learning every game. I would call Matt Snell (fullback) a complete player while Emerson Boozer is just ready to go. He has reached the peak he obtained early in 1967 before he injured his right knee.

About the time Ewbank was heaping praise on his team, Shula was getting in a good word for the Jets at the Colts' headquarters a half-mile away.

"The Jets have a great front four in their defensive line," said Shula, a one-time player for Ewbank. He was referring to Gerry Philbin, Verlon Biggs, Paul Rochester and John Elliott.

Shula, who also had praise for the Jets' linebackers, likened the New York front wall to the great Packers, defense of recent years. "All are quick and agile," he added. "The Jets always have been strong offensively. Now they have added a great defense.

"We don't see many of the types of defense used by the Jets in our league. Yes, we came down here expecting a real football game and I can't see us an 18-point favorite."

Ewbank compared favorably the Colts with Green Bay's great championship teams.

"They've had a fine football team for three years," he said. "And this year they've had the determination not to let the setbacks of the previous two years distract them.

"But I would add, I think we are the best AFL team to play in the Super Bowl. I wouldn't have said it earlier in the season but I'll say it now.

Mike Holovak Fired As Patriot Coach, GM

Boston (AP) — After two seasons of mounting fan discontent it was Goodbye Mike for real today with the announcement that the Boston Patriots had fired their long-time head coach and general manager, Mike Holovak.

The former Boston College star, a fixture with the Pats since the inception of the American Football League in 1960, had an over-all record of 52-46-9 in his nearly eight full seasons at the coaching helm. But he became the target of increasing boos and catcalls as the team slumped in the past two seasons.

The decision to relieve Holovak of his present duties was reached by the 10-man board of directors at a Monday night meeting, but the announcement was withheld until Tuesday so that club President William H. Sullivan Jr. could inform him personally.

Neither was immediately available for comment.

Holovak is in the midst of a five-year contract which runs through the end of the 1971 season, and the Patriots said he would be offered another job in the organization, the nature of which will be determined soon.

A spokesman said there was no immediate indication from Sullivan or other high officials where the team was seeking separate individuals as coach and general manager or planned again to hire one man in the dual capacity.

The fate of Holovak's five assistant coaches was another question, although the spokesman said the team was happy with all of them.

Holovak, 48, starred at halfback for three years with Bos- and after service in World War II spent three years in the National Football League with the Los Angeles Rams and the Chicago Bears.

He later served for nine years as head coach at BC, compiling a 49-29-3 record, before being tapped by the Patriots as the first executive they hired when the team and the AFL were being formed for their maiden 1960 season.

Starting as director of player personnel, Holovak succeeded Lou Saban as head coach on Oct. 10, 1961, and at the end of the 1966 season he signed his present five-year pact as coach and general manager.

Potter Wrestlers First Match Friday

The East Liverpool wrestling team will start its season Friday by hosting Aliquippa.

The reserve match will start at 5:45 and the varsity contest at 7. The match will be in the new gym on a new mat.

Joe Mitchell, the newly appointed coach, has 35 boys out for the team, including seven lettermen. Jim Musuraca, a standout last season, is not able to wrestle this year due to a shoulder injury suffered in football.

The wrestlers practiced for about two weeks in November under coach Joe Mowad, who resigned. Mitchell reports that many of the boys are overweight.

Mitchell has never been a head wrestling coach before. He assisted at East Liverpool four or five years ago. He has been a wrestling official for nine years. He is a graduate of Burgettstown (Pa.) High School, where he wrestled, and Davis and Elkins College, class of 1958.

In addition to the Aliquippa match, four other dual matches and two tournaments remain on the schedule. Mitchell says East Liverpool will try to reschedule the four matches cancelled in December.

The remaining schedule:
Jan. 17-18—Canal Fulton Tournament
Jan. 22—Mingo Junction
Feb. 1—Massillon Tournament
Feb. 4—at South Side Beaver
Feb. 12—Bellaire
Feb. 18—South Side Beaver

Cleveland Police Say Murder Cold-Blooded

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Police said the slaying of William Hairston at his clothing store Tuesday was "cold-blooded, premeditated murder."

Hairston, 63, was shot to death in the back room of the King's Men's Shop. He died less than an hour later at Suburban Community Hospital.

Mike Holovak Fired As Patriot Coach, GM

Boston (AP) — After two seasons of mounting fan discontent it was Goodbye Mike for real today with the announcement that the Boston Patriots had fired their long-time head coach and general manager, Mike Holovak.

The former Boston College star, a fixture with the Pats since the inception of the American Football League in 1960, had an over-all record of 52-46-9 in his nearly eight full seasons at the coaching helm. But he because the target of increasing boos and catcalls as the team slumped in the past two seasons.

The decision to relieve Holovak of his present duties was reached by the 10-man board of directors at a Monday night meeting, but the announcement was withheld until Tuesday so that club President William H. Sullivan Jr. could inform him personally.

Neither was immediately available for comment.

Holovak is in the midst of a five-year contract which runs through the end of the 1971 season, and the Patriots said he would be offered another job in the organization, the nature of which will be determined soon.

A spokesman said there was no immediate indication from Sullivan or other high officials where the team was seeking separate individuals as coach and general manager or planned again to hire one man in the dual capacity.

The fate of Holovak's five assistant coaches was another question, although the spokesman said the team was happy with all of them.

Holovak, 48, starred at halfback for three years with Bosand after service in World War II spent three years in the National Football League with the Los Angeles Rams and the Chicago Bears.

He later served for nine years as head coach at BC, compiling a 49-29-3 record, before being tapped by the Patriots as the first executive they hired when the team and the AFL were being formed for their maiden 1960 season.

Starting as director of player personnel, Holovak succeeded Lou Saban as head coach on Oct. 10, 1961, and at the end of the 1966 season he signed his present five-year pact as coach and general manager.

Potter Wrestlers First Match Friday

The East Liverpool wrestling team will start its season Friday by hosting Aliquippa.

The reserve match will start at 5:45 and the varsity contest at 7. The match will be in the new gym on a new mat.

Joe Mitchell, the newly appointed coach, has 35 boys out for the team, including seven lettermen. Jim Musuraca, a standout last season, is not able to wrestle this year due to a shoulder injury suffered in football.

The wrestlers practiced for about two weeks in November under coach Joe Mowad, who resigned. Mitchell reports that many of the boys are overweight.

Mitchell has never been a head wrestling coach before. He assisted at East Liverpool four or five years ago. He has been a wrestling official for nine years. He is a graduate of Burgettstown (Pa.) High School, where he wrestled, and Davis and Elkins College, class of 1958.

In addition to the Aliquippa match, four other dual matches and two tournaments remain on the schedule. Mitchell says East Liverpool will try to reschedule the four matches cancelled in December.

The remaining schedule:

Jan. 17-18—Canal Fulton Tournament
Jan. 22—Mingo Junction
Feb. 1—Massillon Tournament
Feb. 4—at South Side Beaver
Feb. 12—Bellaire
Feb. 18—South Side Beaver

Bednarik, of Abington, was one of a host of nominees to state positions that Gov. Shafer sent to the Senate Tuesday for conformation.

Cleveland Police Say Murder Cold-Blooded

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Police said the slaying of William Hairston at his clothing store Tuesday was "cold-blooded, premeditated murder."

Hairston, 63, was shot to death in the back room of the King's Men's Shop. He died less than an hour later at Suburban Community Hospital.

County Fair Expenses Run More Than 'Take'

LISBON — Exptnses exceeded receipts by $1,639 during Columbiana County's 123 annual fair last August despite an estimated record attendance of 79,000.

Fair directors Monday night approved the annual financial report prepared by Mrs. Velma Cope of Lisbon, secretary.

P. R. Corey of Columbiana, new president of the board of directors, presided during the monthly session in the county extension office.

DIRECTORS granted the Lisbon High School track team permission to use the grounds for practice during March, April and May.

Corey is the delegate and William Werner of Salem RD 2 the alternate to the Ohio Fair Managers Association convention today through Friday at Columbus.

Corey reappointed all department heads, but several changes were agreed to by two chairmen.

Rolland Stryffeler of Beloit RD 2, who headed the cattle department last year, will retain the dairy cattle section and relinquish the beef cattle section to J. Htrbert Thompson of East Liverpool RD 2. Stryffeler will assume control of the grain, seeds, hay and grass silage department headed last year by Thompson. Corey appointed Thompson to handle advertising and named Tom Rudebock of Leetonia RD to assist him.

Receipts last year (Dec. 1, 1967, through Nov. 30, 1968) were $65,230, which, with a carryover of $5,716, made $70,946 available. Expenses were $66,869, leaving a balance of $4,077 as of Nov. 30.

Over $16,000 was received as aid from the state and county. Ohio furnished $1,000 for Junior Fair activities and $11,658 from the Ohio Fairs Fund. The county contributed $3,300. Other receipts were:

W. Va. Legislature Opens; Higher Taxes Are Expected

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — The West Virginia legislature today began a 60-day session in which money pressure from several directions seemed sure to produce higher taxes, no matter what may have been said hopefully in the recent campaign.

Organizing the new 59th legislature was scheduled to take up the first couple of hours after Senate and House convened separately at noon.

The preliminaries were to include the election of Sen. Lloyd G. Jackson, D-Lincoln, as the new Senate president and Del. Ivor F. Boiarsky, D-Kanawha, as the new House speaker. The elections were only formalities, though, as the choices actually were made in caucuses last month of the Senate and House Democratic majorities.

With organizing disposed of, Senate and House were to meet in joint session in the House chamber to hear the last legislative message of outgoing Democratic Gov. Hulett C. Smith.

The new leadership in charge of the two chambers' robust Democratic majorities will be dealing with a state administration of the opposite party starting next Monday, when Republican Gov.-elect Arch A. Moore Jr. takes office as Smith's successor.

The lawmakers have plenty of proposed legislation, developed by their own between-sessions committees, awaiting their action, but they know little of what will be forthcoming in the way of legislative proposals from Moore.

Legislators are especially curious to learn how Moore will try to make good his campaign statements that public school teachers can be given a $1,000 pay increase across the board without raising taxes.

Skepticism in the legislature that the $24-million cost of the teacher pay proposal can be met at existing tax rates is by no means confined to Democrats.

Moore only said taxes wouldn't have to be raised to finance a teacher pay hike. He never ruled out the possibility of higher taxes for other purposes.

Ruling Hits Objection On Bible Stories

EAST PALESTINE — Objections to the reading of Bible stories in a classroom were answered by the board of education this week in an opinion by the city solicitor that indicated the practice is not a religious exercise.

Mr. and Mrs. William Goldstein of 721 E. Martin St. advised the board in November they objected to the reading of stories based on the Old and New Testaments in a first-grade class attended by their son.

The readings take place at the beginning of the daily program.

City Solicitor Jack Cohen issued an opinion, at the request of the board, which stated in effect that the readings are not a religious exercise, but objective classroom readings which "on occasion involve the Bible," and, therefore, are not a violation of any rights of children by requiring them to participate in a religious rite.

The board at its meeting Monday night accepted the resignation of E. M. Hoopes of E. Martin St., a teacher of mathematics at the high school and former athletic director who has a total of 34 years of teaching, including assignments at Lisbon.

He will be replaced Jan. 13 by Mrs. Ruth Helman, now a science teacher. The board hired Miss Barbara J. Bruce of Beaver Falls, a 1966 graduate of Geneva College, to teach science at a salary of $5,300.

Atty. James Allison was reelected president of the board. Terry W. Nash was named vice president. The meetings will continue to be held the second and fourth Mondays of each month.

The board approved the use of the gym at the Capt. Taggart School for a 12-week course on judo sponsored by the city's Recreation Committee and taught by Richard Keating of near Columbiana.

Other retirees are: Martin J. Bishop of East Palestine, metallurgical observer, Metallurgical Department, with 27 years service; Keith Tucker of East Livtrpool, hooker, Conditioning Department, with 18 years, and Leroy Clark of East Liverpool, janitor, Cold Strip, 17 years service.

QUESTION:
"Is it proper for us to telephone the family after we hear that a good friend has passed away"?

It is quite proper to call the residence, but do not insist upon talking to the husband or wife of the deceased, nor to the father or mother, son or daughter. The conversation should be brief.

LISBON — Exptnses exceeded receipts by $1,639 during Columbiana County's 123 annual fair last August despite an estimated record attendance of 79,000.

Fair directors Monday night approved the annual financial report prepared by Mrs. Velma Cope of Lisbon, secretary.

P. R. Corey of Columbiana, new president of the board of directors, presided during the monthly session in the county extension office.

DIRECTORS granted the Lisbon High School track team permission to use the grounds for practice during March, April and May.

Corey is the delegate and William Werner of Salem RD 2 the alternate to the Ohio Fair Managers Association convention today through Friday at Columbus.

Corey reappointed all department heads, but several changes were agreed to by two chairmen.

Rolland Stryffeler of Beloit RD 2, who headed the cattle department last year, will retain the dairy cattle section and relinquish the beef cattle section to J. Hirbert Thompson of East Liverpool RD 2. Stryffeler will assume control of the grain, seeds, hay and grass silage department headed last year by Thompson. Corey appointed Thompson to handle advertising and named Tom Rudebock of Leetonia RD to assist him.

Receipts last year (Dec. 1, 1967, through Nov. 30, 1968) were $65,230, which, with a carryover of $5,716, made $70,946 available. Expenses were $66,869, leaving a balance of $4,077 as of Nov. 30.

Over $16,000 was received as aid from the state and county. Ohio furnished $1,000 for Junior Fair activities and $11,658 from the Ohio Fairs Fund. The county contributed $3,300. Other receipts were:

The next meeting will be Jan. 22 at the extension office.

W. Va. Legislature Opens; Higher Taxes Are Expected

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — The West Virginia legislature today began a 60-day session in which money pressure from several directions seemed sure to produce higher taxes, no matter what may have been said hopefully in the recent campaign.

Organizing the new 59th legislature was scheduled to take up the first couple of hours after Senate and House convened separately at noon.

The preliminaries were to include the election of Sen. Lloyd G. Jackson, D-Lincoln, as the new Senate president and Del. Ivor F. Boiarsky, D-Kanawha, as the new House speaker. The elections were only formalities, though, as the choices actually were made in caucuses last month of the Senate and House Democratic majorities.

With organizing disposed of, Senate and House were to meet in joint session in the House chamber to hear the last legislative message of outgoing Democratic Gov. Hulett C. Smith.

The new leadership in charge of the two chambers' robust Democratic majorities will be dealing with a state administration of the opposite party starting next Monday, when Republican Gov.-elect Arch A. Moore Jr. takes office as Smith's successor.

The lawmakers have plenty of proposed legislation, developed by their own between-sessions committees, awaiting their action, but they know little of what will be forthcoming in the way of legislative proposals from Moore.

Legislators are especially curious to learn how Moore will try to make good his campaign statements that public school teachers can be given a $1,000 pay increase across the board without raising taxes.

Skepticism in the legislature that the $24-million cost of the teacher pay proposal can be met at existing tax rates is by no means confined to Democrats.

Moore only said taxes wouldn't have to be raised to finance a teacher pay hike. He never ruled out the possibility of higher taxes for other purposes.

Other sources of pressure for more general revenue dollars include state-supported universities and colleges, other institutions, and proposals for a modest pay raise for state employes generally plus salary boosts for the state police, to name only some larger items.

'Goals' For Retired Men

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Many women married to men who have retired complain:

"My husband is always underfoot. He doesn't seem to know what to do with himself."

This shows a dismal lack of masculine initiative. No matter how active a life he has led, no man at 65 has achieved a quarter of the vagrant daydreams and fleeting ambitions that have crossed his mind.

Why not pursue a few of them now? Does he have anything better to do?

Every man has his own list of fugitive goals and idle aspirations he has never acted on. But probably most men at 65 have never—

Panned gold in the Klondike.

Acted as a carnival shill.

Flowed over Niagara Falls in a barrel.

Waited at a London street corner for a blind date with a lady-in-waiting.

Walked across the Brooklyn Bridge or the Golden Gate Bridge.

Haggled in a Cairo marketplace with a Syrian rug merchant.

Put down a native rebellion.

Caught a souvenir football flung into the stands by an exhuberant pro player after making an 7-yard touchdown run.

Stood before a firing squad and told the awed captain, "I do not choose to be blindfolded."

Volunteered to go along on the first passenger flight to the moon.

Been tarred and feathered and ridden out of town on a rail.

Held a $100,000 winning ticket in a state lottery.

Lost weight from the strain of carrying too heavy a money belt.

Picketed a meeting of the PTA in protest against its policies.

Made an after dinner speech at the White House.

Bugged a secret session of the Mafia.

Filtered alone through enemy lines at night in order to bring help to a besieged battalion.

Taught spelling to a student class of skywriters.

Escaped from a castle dungeon.

Been mentioned in dispatches by a grateful government.

Filled a cavity in a polar bear's aching tooth.

Gone scuba diving and fought off an enraged shark by smashign a fist aganist his muzzle.

Trapped and caged an Abominable Snowman.

In a world full of so many wonderful things to do, why should any retired man let his wife be in a position to complain that he is always underfoot?

If nothing else he can always run away from home and join a Gypsy caravan. Then what'll she say?

Voluntary Grain Setup Virtually Same As '68

LISBON — The U. S. Department of Agriculture's voluntary feed grain program for 1969 is virtually the same as last year, according to J. Glenn Bates, chairman of the Columbiana County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service Committee.

The signup will be conducted simultaneously for feed grains and wheat from Feb. 3 through March 21 at the county ASC office on the Square.

THE TARGET for acreage diversion this year is 37 million acres of corn, grain sorghum and barley. This compares with 32.4 million acres last year when Barley was not included in the program.

Bates said the 37-million-acre diversion goal will hold the 1969 crop about three to five million tons below estimated requirements. Utilization is increasing because of greater domestic livestock production, he said, and corn exports are expected to show modest gains.

Price-support loan and payment levels for corn and sorghum will be the same as in 1968.

Producers may participate in the 1969 feed grain program by reducing their total base acreage by at least 20 per cent. Additional acreage reduction is being encouraged by acreage diversion payments based on 45 per cent of the total county price-support loan and payment (U. S. average of $1.35 for corn) times the farm's project yield.

BATES listed the following key provisions of the 1969 feed grain program:

1.—Required acreage diversion to conserving use to qualify for price support loans and payments is continued at 20 per cent of a farmer's base acreage of corn and barley. No diversion payments will be made for this minimum diversion except for small base farms, the same as in 1966-68.

2.—Additional acreage diversion will be possible up to a total of 50 per cent of the base or 25 acres, whichever is larger, the same as in 1968. The acreage diversion payment rate will be at 45 per cent of the total price support times the projected yield.

3.—As in 1966-68, a farm with a base of 25 acres or less will get payment on the first 20 per cent acreage diversion at 20 per cent of the total support rate times the yield, and at the regular 45 per cent payment rate on the remaining acreage diverted to a conserving use.

Producers with feed grain base acreages up to 125 acres will have the option of temporarily reducing this base down to 25 acres and still be eligible for the small farm provision on condition that no corn, grain sorghum or barley will be planted for harvest on the farm and the 25 acres are diverted to conserving use.

Bates said other participation requirements relating to maintaining conserving bases, compliance on other farms and complying with signup intentions remain unchanged from the 1968 program.

Pennsylvania Senate Opens With Contested Seat Fight

HARRISBURG (AP) — Opening day ceremonies in the General Assembly usually follow a set script but Tuesday, the Senate missed the opening curtain and destroyed the scenario with a rambling dispute over a contested seat.

Democratic and Republican playwrights traditionally try to come up with a day of bipartisan harmony for at least the first day of a session, and Tuesday, the House members read their lines faultlessly.

But the Senate ended up in an extemporaneous debate over the constitutional rights of that body to judge the qualifications of its own members and the power of the state attorney general to decide legal procedures.

At stake was the 35th senatorial seat for Cambria County.

Johnstown attorney W. Louis Coppersmith, a Democrat, had come hoping to be seated and even followed assembly custom by bringing his wife and family along to watch.

But Commonwealth Secretary Joseph Kelley refused to certify him as the victor and the Senate, on a 26-21 party line vote, rejected a Democratic proposal to demand his certification.

The dispute dragged on, both on and off the Senate floor, until it delayed the joint session for Gov. Shafer's State of the Commonwealth message by an hour and a half.

The House elected Rep. Herbert Fineman, D-Philadelphia, as its speaker and the Senate re-elected Sen. Robert D. Fleming, R-Allegheny, its president pro tempore, both at $22,000 per year.

Assuming their posts also were Rep. K. Leroy Irvis, D-Allegheny, as House majority leader; Rep. Lee A. Donaldson Jr., R-Allegheny, as House minority leader; Sen. Stanley G. Stroup, R-Bedford, as Senate Majority leader, and Sen. Ernest P. Kline, D-Beaver, as minority leader.

Irvis, the first Negro to hold the post in Pennsylvania, moved up to the majority leadership from minority whip last session and Donaldson retained his post as Republican floor leader as that party moved from the majority to the minority in the House.

Stroup and Kline were reelected by their party caucuses.

Pueblo Crewman's Father Eyes Council

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Warren "Pat" Hayes, father of one of the captured Pueblo crewmen, reportedly is planning to become an American Independent Party candidate for Columbus City Council.

Hayes, a pipe fitter, has been active since April in the party that backed former Alabama Gov. George Wallace's presidential effort.

Purse With $15 Taken By Thief

Edith Williams of 745 Garner Ave., an employe of Bricker's Isaly dairy store on E. 6th St., told police her purse containing $15 and other items was stolen from the kitchen at the store while she was at work between 4 and 8:30 p.m. Tuesday.

The woman said the purse also contained a driver's license, a Christmas savings book and other papers. Any person could have had access to the purse, since it was in a spot close to a hallway that leads to restrooms, she said.

Meanwhile, Mollie Schwartz of Shadyside Ave. told police the left front wheel and tire were stolen from her 1968 model car Tuesday morning while it was parked near her home.

A would-be thief forced a door early Tuesday in the State St. Laundromat owned by Robert Conkle of 954 Grandview Ave., but nothing was taken, police said. The door leads from the laundry to a garage in the rear.

Shapp May Enter Politics Again In Pennsylvania

HARRISBURG (AP) — Milton Shapp, the unsuccessful Democratic candidate for governor in 1966, is considering throwing his political hat into the Pennsylvania ring again.

Right now he's undecided whether:

1—he'll be a candidate for anything

2 — he'll run for governor or U.S. senator in 1970.

"Whatever I do I'll make up my mind before this summer," Shapp told a newsman. "And if I decide to run for public office again the first person I'll have to win over is my wife, Muriel. She's still against it."

The Philadelphia businessman, who reportedly spent over $2.5 million of his personal fortune in first winning the Democratic nomination in a bitter primary fight with Robert P. Casey and then losing to Republican Raymond P. Shafer, isn't expected to close the purse strings if he tries to crash the Democratic ticket.

Pennsylvania Senate Opens With Contested Seat Fight

HARRISBURG (AP) — Opening day ceremonies in the General Assembly usually follow a set script but Tuesday, the Senate missed the opening curtain and destroyed the scenario with a rambling dispute over a contested seat.

Democratic and Republican playwrights traditionally try to come up with a day of bipartisan harmony for at least the first day of a session, and Tuesday, the House members read their lines faultlessly.

But the Senate ended up in an extemporaneous debate over the constitutional rights of that body to judge the qualifications of its own members and the power of the state attorney general to decide legal procedures.

At stake was the 35th senatorial seat for Cambria County.

Johnstown attorney W. Louis Coppersmith, a Democrat, had come hoping to be seated and even followed assembly custom by bringing his wife and family along to watch.

But Commonwealth Secretary Joseph Kelley refused to certify him as the victor and the Senate, on a 26-21 party line vote, rejected a Democratic proposal to demand his certification.

The dispute dragged on, both on and off the Senate floor, until it delayed the joint session for Gov. Shafer's State of the Commonwealth message by an hour and a half.

The House elected Rep. Herbert Fineman, D-Philadelphia, as its speaker and the Senate re-elected Sen. Robert D. Fleming, R-Allegheny, its president pro tempore, both at $22,000 per year.

Assuming their posts also were Rep. K. Leroy Irvis, D-Allegheny, as House majority leader; Rep. Lee A. Donaldson Jr., R-Allegheny, as House minority leader; Sen. Stanley G. Stroup, R-Bedford, as Senate Majority leader, and Sen. Ernest P. Kline, D-Beaver, as minority leader.

Irvis, the first Negro to hold the post in Pennsylvania, moved up to the majority leadership from minority whip last session and Donaldson retained his post as Republican floor leader as that party moved from the majority to the minority in the House.

Stroup and Kline were re-elected by their party caucuses.

Purse With $15 Taken By Thief

Edith Williams of 745 Garner Ave., an employe of Bricker's Isaly dairy store on E. 6th St., told police her purse containing $15 and other items was stolen from the kitchen at the store while she was at work between 4 and 8:30 p.m. Tuesday.

The woman said the purse also contained a driver's license, a Christmas savings book and other papers. Any person could have had access to the purse, since it was in a spot close to a hallway that leads to restrooms, she said.

Meanwhile, Mollie Schwartz of Shadyside Ave. told police the left front wheel and tire were stolen from her 1968 model car Tuesday morning while it was parked near her home.

A would-be thief forced a door early Tuesday in the State St. Laundromat owned by Robert Conkle of 954 Grandview Ave., but nothing was taken, police said. The door leads from the laundry to a garage in the rear.

Shapp May Enter Politics Again In Pennsylvania

HARRISBURG (AP) — Milton Shapp, the unsuccessful Democratic candidate for governor in 1966, is considering throwing his political hat into the Pennsylvania ring again.

Right now he's undecided whether:

1—he'll be a candidate for anything

2 — he'll run for governor or U.S. senator in 1970.

"Whatever I do I'll make up my mind before this summer," Shapp told a newsman. "And if I decide to run for public office again the first person I'll have to win over is my wife, Muriel. She's still against it."

The Philadelphia businessman, who reportedly spent over $2.5 million of his personal fortune in first winning the Democratic nomination in a bitter primary fight with Robert P. Casey and then losing to Republican Raymond P. Shafer, isn't expected to close the purse strings if he tries to crash the Democratic ticket.

A&P

It takes an expert to grade beef!

In our great country we're lucky.
Our government trains and employs experts...men who inspect and grade beef at hundreds of locations throughout the nation. They protect you...and retailers, like us.

That's why A&P is happy there's a U.S. government inspector on the premises of our meat plant serving this area.

Also important are A&P's own beef experts.
Their job is to see to it that A&P Beef measures up to our own "SUPER-RIGHT" quality standards... standards which don't exactly fit
our government's grading categories.
For instance, some beef graded U.S. Choice
just doesn't meet our "SUPER-RIGHT" specifications.

No wonder we don't hesitate to guarantee that the "SUPER-RIGHT" Beef you buy
will be as flavorful and tender as you think it should be,
or your money back.

So, you don't have to become an expert
to choose great beef for your family... just shop A&P!

A&P

It takes an expert to grade beef!

In our great country we're lucky.
Our government trains and employs experts...men who inspect and grade beef at hundreds of locations throughout the nation. They protect you...and retailers, like us.

That's why A&P is happy there's a U.S. government inspector on the premises of our meat plant serving this area.

Also important are A&P's own beef experts.
Their job is to see to it that A&P Beef measures up to our own "SUPER-RIGHT" quality standards... standards which don't exactly fit
our government's grading categories.
For instance, some beef graded U.S. Choice
just doesn't meet our "SUPER-RIGHT" specifications.

No wonder we don't hesitate to guarantee
that the "SUPER-RIGHT" Beef you buy
will be as flavorful and tender as you think it should be,
or your money back.

So, you don't have to become an expert
to choose great beef for your family... just shop A&P!

Citywide Tree Pickup Continues In East End

The citywide collection of discarded Christmas trees will continue Thursday in East End.

Collections are scheduled on these streets:

Globe St., Etruria St., Cleveland Ave., Palissey St., Wedgewood St., Holliday St., Park Ave., Alpha St., Oakland Ave., Price St., Valley Ave., Elizabeth St., Putnam St., Harvey Ave., Ohio Ave., Michigan Ave., Little England.

E. 2nd, 3rd, 4th, and 5th Sts., Broadway, Walnut St., Elm St., College St., Sugar St., Thompson Ave., Vine St. and Blakeley St.

At the beginning of the New Year, front doors in Staffordshire and northern England are thrust open. A man strides in carrying a bit of coal or bread as symbols of wealth. The gift-bearer, known as "first-foot," must have dark hair. A light color, especially red, supposedly brings ill luck.

On The TV Beat

By Cecil Smith

It's The Same Old Rat Race

Last year, I dropped onto the "Lucy" set to meet a friend and ran into, of all people, John Wayne, and the big Duke growled: "We don't see much of you since you joined the mother art."

At that moment, I remember, I felt very remote from the celuloid world of TV and film illusion that I had spent most of my professional life observing until I left it to write about the burgeoning theater of Los Angeles four years ago.

NOW THRUST suddenly back into TV criticism again by the tragic death of Hal Humphrey, there was the feeling of falling through space, of weightlessness, of reaching for things that weren't there.

The feeling lasted about three minutes. Then I realized nothing much had changed. It was the same old rat race. Only the names have been changed to protect the innocent.

You never get very far away from television if you deal with entertainment in Hollywood because television is the name of the game, the $3 billion business which supports the structure of making movies and performing plays and exploring other aesthetic avenues of make-believe.

Most of it from Shakespeare to Rod Serling is in large or small degree a variation on the first cave man who sat down with his tribe and began a tale with "once upon a time."

THE ELECTRONIC wonder of television differs in that it can offer us things as they happen and the fantastic six-day saga of Apollo 8 and the voyage to the moon almost justifies every mindless, witless moment wasted by the tube. And even here the differences is minimal in the light of the old academic truism that history gives us the facts but fiction tells us the truth.

But any reconsideration of television again brings that frustrating rumbling in the belly at the things it does. There's the immediate annoyance that its fiction so seldom jibes with its facts about this society.

So at a holiday party you find seated like a skinny Buddha on the floor Aaron Spelling, mastermind of "Mod Squad," and he tells you he's lured Rod Serling back to television to write a new series for ABC that he says will truly reflect this world and tell it like it is, and you listen and you nod and you think: "We'll see."

THE BLOOD churns at the continuing idiocy of network rivalry in which NBC is busy trying to cut the throat of CBS while ABC struggles to get into the fight with a blunt knife, and the real victim is the viewer. It's a system in which the customer is always wrong.

Thus Tuesday night we had the launching of NBC's otherwise promising two-hour news magazine concept, "First Tuesday," in which the network's news department on a monthly basis will offer a factual omnibus dealing in the first program with such variables as Castro's Cuba, the Israel war zone, Rita Hayworth at 50 and Charles Atlas at 76.

But NBC has scheduled it opposite the fine CBS news magazine, "60 Minutes."

IT IS POSSIBLE NBC believes people interested in such matter only exist on Tuesday night, that they hibernate through the rest of the week, that the road to glory is to split the available audience?

NBC is not alone in this kind of nonsense, as any mother knows who tried to solace a child who found out while he was watching "Pinocchio" on NBC that "Charlie Brown's Christmas" was running on CBS.

Meanwhile, with the dawn of 1969, there would seem to be prospects for revolutionary happenings within the world of electronic communication, spurred by the latent governmental examination of the field to provide guidelines for the further development of cable TV systems, international signals via satellite, a workable pay-TV program — a myriad of changes in laws devised in grandmother's day to govern what rides the public air.

-:-

THESE HAVE only been hinted at in the segments thus far released of the report of the President's task force on communications headed by Undersecretary of State Eugene Rostow. The recommendations of the full report after they burrow through the red tape of Washington may have a profound effect upon us all.

It certainly won't happen overnight. Washington moves in mysterious ways.

The funniest moment on television last year was during the congressional hearings into network operation when CBS President Frank Stanton mentioned Vladimir Horowitz and Rep. Hale Boggs asked: "What's that?"

The shocked expression on Stanton's face should have been on "Laugh-In."

New Improvements Set At Vast Conway Yards

PITTSBURGH — Penn Central will invest another three-quarters of a million dollars in 1969 "in its continuing program to keep the Conway Yard in step with advancing railroad technology and maintain its key role in systemwide freight operations."

George M. Smith, vice president and general manager for the railroad here, said that the improvements at the Beaver County facility will be a continuation of a half - million-dollar capital program carried out in 1968.

THE MAJOR project over the two years is updating the computerized systems which automatically sort out and assemble cars into trains, Smith said. "The changes are required to maintain and increase efficiency in handling the growing number of longer and heavier freight cars," he explained.

Another major improvement this year will be construction of a modern "service station" for diesel engines. This facility will permit engines in over-the-road service to be inspected, fueled and sanded quickly and efficiently at one location.

Pointing to a new record of 1,863,193 cars classified in one year during 1968 at Conway, Smith said:

"This activity and investment at Conway underscores its continuing importance to our railroad since merger of two systems into Penn Central nearly a year ago."

The car weight, speed and rollability measuring systems as well as the automatic retarder or braking systems at Conway originally were designed to handle standard freight cars when they averaged about 45 feet in length and the maximum gross weight (car weight plus lading) was aboout 100 tons.

Today many cars are 90 feet long and gross weights are frequently 120 tons or more. New measuring and braking systems being installed at Conway are capable of controlling movement of cars of 160 tons gross weight.

STUDIES showed greater percentage of the new heavier cars moved westward through Conway than moved eastward. Hence the upgrading of the westward yard was programmed first. It is now nearly completed and work on the eastbound yard is scheduled to start soon.

Modernization requirements include:

Substitution of more than 800 larger pneumatic cylinders controlling all retarders and modification of the air compressor plant to supply 20 per cent greater pressure for braking.

Equipment to measure and establish a higher weight category and for transfer of this weight information through computers to all retarder controls.

Automatic slower speed for heavyweight cars leaving each control (retarder) point while rolling down the hump and into a classification track.

The new equipment is being supplied by the Signal & Communications Division of the Westinghouse Air Brake Co. Installation will be by railroad employes.

Grange Will Meet

LISBON — Mt. Nebo Grange will meet at 8 tonight, with Carl Bailey, master, in charge. Howard Wilhelm, lecturer, will present the program.

New Pact Talks Set By AP, Wire Guild

NEW YORK (AP) — Federal mediator George Byrnes adjourned negotiations between The Associated Press and the Wire Service Guild early today to reconvene at 4 p.m.

During Tuesday's bargaining the Guild submitted new proposals on wages, the union shop, life insurance, vacations, holidays, and other items including a 37½-hour, five-day week. Under the proposal the top for newsmen would increase to $264 weekly.

The Associated Press rejected the Guild proposal saying it far exceeded the $5.7-million package which was the AP's final offer and it contained totally unacceptable union shop provisions.

Firemen Set Officers For Newell Area

Other officers for 1969 include Edward Childs, vice president; Vernon Betteridge, secretary; James Norris, treasurer; Earl Flesch, chief; Robert Glendenning, assistant chief; Robert Stoneburner, captain; Gene Lytton, lieutenant, and Stoneburner five year trustee.

A special award was given Richard Rayburn for 10 years of service. Rayburn is retired from the department.

Reports for 1968 showed 73 calls answered, the largest in the department's 61-year history.

The fire loss in Newell for the year was $1,475. Outside Newell the figure was $101,739, which included the $70,000 damage estimate at Waterford Park in November. Total loss to buildings was $64,285 and loss of contents $37,929.

The department covered 183 miles in answering the calls and gave 142 hours of service averaging 11 men per call.

Of the 73 calls made, 15 were for grass fires, 8 for houses, 7 each for dump fires, vehicles and house trailers.

New Improvements Set At Vast Conway Yards

PITTSBURGH — Penn Central will invest another three-quarters of a million dollars in 1969 "in its continuing program to keep the Conway Yard in step with advancing railroad technology and maintain its key role in systemwide freight operations."

George M. Smith, vice president and general manager for the railroad here, said that the improvements at the Beaver County facility will be a continuation of a half - million-dollar capital program carried out in 1968.

THE MAJOR project over the two years is updating the computerized systems which automatically sort out and assemble cars into trains, Smith said. "The changes are required to maintain and increase efficiency in handling the growing number of longer and heavier freight cars," he explained.

Another major improvement this year will be construction of a modern "service station" for diesel engines. This facility will permit engines in over-the-road service to be inspected, fueled and sanded quickly and efficiently at one location.

Pointing to a new record of 1,863,193 cars classified in one year during 1968 at Conway, Smith said:

"This activity and investment at Conway underscores its continuing importance to our railroad since merger of two systems into Penn Central nearly a year ago."

The car weight, speed and rollability measuring systems as well as the automatic retarder or braking systems at Conway originally were designed to handle standard freight cars when they averaged about 45 feet in length and the maximum gross weight (car weight plus lading) was aboout 100 tons.

Today many cars are 90 feet long and gross weights are frequently 120 tons or more. New measuring and braking systems being installed at Conway are capable of controlling movement of cars of 160 tons gross weight.

STUDIES showed greater percentage of the new heavier cars moved westward through Conway than moved eastward. Hence the upgrading of the westward yard was programmed first. It is now nearly completed and work on the eastbound yard is scheduled to start soon.

Modernization requirements include:

Substitution of more than 800 larger pneumatic cylinders controlling all retarders and modification of the air compressor plant to supply 20 per cent greater pressure for braking.

Equipment to measure and establish a higher weight category and for transfer of this weight information through computers to all retarder controls.

Automatic slower speed for heavyweight cars leaving each control (retarder) point while rolling down the hump and into a classification track.

The new equipment is being supplied by the Signal & Communications Division of the Westinghouse Air Brake Co. Installation will be by railroad employes.

Grange Will Meet

LISBON — Mt. Nebo Grange will meet at 8 tonight, with Carl Bailey, master, in charge. Howard Wilhelm, lecturer, will present the program.

New Pact Talks Set By AP, Wire Guild

NEW YORK (AP) — Federal mediator George Byrnes adjourned negotiations between The Associated Press and the Wire Service Guild early today to reconvene at 4 p.m.

During Tuesday's bargaining the Guild submitted new proposals on wages, the union shop, life insurance, vacations, holidays, and other items including a 37½-hour, five-day week. Under the proposal the top for newsmen would increase to $264 weekly.

The Associated Press rejected the Guild proposal saying it far exceeded the $5.7-million package which was the AP's final offer and it contained totally unacceptable union shop provisions.

On The TV Beat

By Cecil Smith

It's The Same Old Rat Race

Last year, I dropped onto the "Lucy" set to meet a friend and ran into, of all people, John Wayne, and the big Duke growled: "We don't see much of you since you joined the mother art."

At that moment, I remember, I felt very remote from the cleluloid world of TV and film illusion that I had spent most of my professional life observing until I left it to write about the burgeoning theater of Los Angeles four years ago.

NOW THRUST suddenly back into TV criticism again by the tragic death of Hal Humphrey, there was the feeling of falling through space, of weightlessness, of reaching for things that weren't there.

The feeling lasted about three minutes. Then I realized nothing much had changed. It was the same old rat race. Only the names have been changed to protect the innocent.

You never get very far away from television if you deal with entertainment in Hollywood because television is the name of the game, the $3 billion business which supports the structure of making movies and performing plays and exploring other aesthetic avenues of make-believe.

Most of it from Shakespeare to Rod Serling is in large or small degree a variation on the first cave man who sat down with his tribe and began a tale with "once upon a time."

THE ELECTRONIC wonder of television differs in that it can offer us things as they happen and the fantastic six-day saga of Apollo 8 and the voyage to the moon almost justifies every mindless, witless moment wasted by the tube. And even here the differences is minimal in the light of the old academic truism that history gives us the facts but fiction tells us the truth.

But any reconsideration of television again brings that frustrating rumbling in the belly at the things it does. There's the immediate annoyance that its fiction so seldom jibes with its facts about this society.

So at a holiday party you find seated like a skinny Buddha on the floor Aaron Spelling, mastermind of "Mod Squad," and he tells you he's lured Rod Serling back to television to write a new series for ABC that he says will truly reflect this world and tell it like it is, and you listen and you nod and you think: "We'll see."

THE BLOOD churns at the continuing idiocy of network rivalry in which NBC is busy trying to cut the throat of CBS while ABC struggles to get into the fight with a blunt knife, and the real victim is the viewer. It's a system in which the customer is always wrong.

Thus Tuesday night we had the launching of NBC's otherwise promising two-hour news magazine concept, "First Tuesday," in which the network's news department on a monthly basis will offer a factual omnibus dealing in the first program with such variables as Castro's Cuba, the Israel war zone, Rita Hayworth at 50 and Charles Atlas at 76.

But NBC has scheduled it opposite the fine CBS news magazine, "60 Minutes."

IT IS POSSIBLE NBC believes people interested in such matter only exist on Tuesday night, that they hibernate through the rest of the week, that the road to glory is to split the available audience?

NBC is not alone in this kind of nonsense, as any mother knows who tried to solace a child who found out while he was watching "Pinocchio" on NBC that "Charlie Brown's Christmas" was running on CBS.

Meanwhile, with the dawn of 1969, there would seem to be prospects for revolutionary happenings within the world of electronic communication, spurred by the latent governmental examination of the field to provide guidelines for the further development of cable TV systems, international signals via satellite, a workable pay-TV program — a myriad of changes in laws devised in grandmother's day to govern what rides the public air.

-:-

THESE HAVE only been hinted at in the segments thus far released of the report of the President's task force on communications headed by Undersecretary of State Eugene Rostow. The recommendations of the full report after they burrow through the red tape of Washington may have a profound effect upon us all.

It certainly won't happen overnight. Washington moves in mysterious ways.

The funniest moment on television last year was during the congressional hearings into network operation when CBS President Frank Stanton mentioned Vladimir Horowitz and Rep. Hale Boggs asked: "What's that?"

The shocked expression on Stanton's face should have been on "Laugh-In."

Firemen Set Officers For Newell Area

Robert Duncan was returned as president of Newell volunteer firemen during the annual meeting Sunday at the station.

Other officers for 1969 include Edward Childs, vice president; Vernon Betteridge, secretary; James Norris, treasurer; Earl Flesch, chief; Robert Glendenning, assistant chief; Robert Stoneburner, captain; Gene Lytton, lieutenant, and Stoneburner five year trustee.

A special award was given Richard Rayburn for 10 years of service. Rayburn is retired from the department.

Reports for 1968 showed 73 calls answered, the largest in the department's 61-year history.

The fire loss in Newell for the year was $1,475. Outside Newell the figure was $101,739, which included the $70,000 damage estimate at Waterford Park in November. Total loss to buildings was $64,285 and loss of contents $37,929.

The department covered 183 miles in answering the calls and gave 142 hours of service averaging 11 men per call.

Of the 73 calls made, 15 were for grass fires, 8 for houses, 7 each for dump fires, vehicles and house trailers.

Committees named for the year included: Carnival, Lytton, chairman, Ed Childs, co-chairman, Ed Tice, Joe Guiese and Don Dunlevy; maintenance, Donald McVeigh, chairman, Curley Adkins, Earl Talbott and Louis Gurstenlauer.

The next meeting will be Jan. 13 at 6:30 p. m.

Report Outlines Cafeterias' Use

An average of 3,142 students used the services of cafeterias in the East Liverpool school system during November, with approximately 57 per cent participating.

The report was made during this week's meeting of the board of education.

Lunches served under the needy provision totaled 2,154 for the month. Reimbursement received on milk served was $796.36. Free adult lunches served were 174.

Lunches were served 18 days at all buildings except the high school, where the figure was 17 days.

Tentative Agreement Given New Contract

LANCASTER, Ohio (AP) — Tentative agreement on a new contract was announced Tuesday in a strike that has idled some 700 workers at the Lancaster Glass Corp. since Sept. 11.

Officials of the American Flint Glass Workers Union said the agreement was reached after an all-day, all-night bargaining session. Terms were not disclosed pending a ratification vote set for Friday.

Clermont County Set As Development Area

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Clermont County has been designated an economic development growth area by the Appalachian Regional Commission in Washington.

Albert G. Giles, director of the Ohio Department of Urban Affairs, said Tuesday the designation qualifies the county for federal assistance in development of airports, access roads, health facilities, housing, educational facilities, sewage treatment plants and water systems.

Ohio House Praises OSU's Bowl Victory

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio House Tuesday commended Ohio State University for its Rose Bowl football victory over Southern California.

In a resolution sponsored by representatives who are OSU graduates, the Buckeyes were termed "kings of national collegiate football" and Coach Woody Hayes was called "one of the most outstanding coaches of all time."

Junior Editors Quiz on KANGAROO RAT

QUESTION: Why don't kangaroo rats need water?

ANSWER: The interesting little kangaroo rat is a dweller in the parched, arid deserts of the American Southwest. Like certain other animals — such as kangaroos, bullfrogs and grasshoppers — it has developed jumping as a way of escaping from animals like the fox and rattlesnake. Hence the powerful hind legs, the very long tail, which stretches out behind, acting as a balance. During the day, kangaroo rats remain in their burrows underground, protected from the heat. With evening, like many other desert creatures, the little hoppers come out and go about their business of searching for juicy, edible plants. The desert plants survive because they manage to store the water they can absorb in the rare times when it rains. Kangaroo rats, like other animals, DO need water, but they get what they need from their diet of plants. Although not the same species, the pretty little kangaroo mice look like smaller kangaroo rats and have much the same habits.
